

CONSUMERS PROFIT; WHOLESALEERS LOSE

Eastern Clothing Manufacturers
Overstocked and Anxious to Unload, Says Albenberg.

Conditions in eastern clothing manufacturing establishments will result in lower prices for consumers, according to M. C. Albenberg, a representative of Miller-Albenberg company, women's ready-to-wear dealers, who has just returned from a business trip to the east.

Mr. Albenberg declares manufacturers are overstocked and are selling at reduced prices in order to prepare for the coming season. They must have floor space and are therefore forced to quickly move their stocks.

While in New York Mr. Albenberg inspected many stocks of women's garments and found manufacturers anxious to unload at startlingly low figures.
