

WINNERS OF THE FREIMUTH DOLLS

The forty-nine winners in the doll contest at Freimuth's were awarded their prizes Tuesday morning in the big Freimuth toy department. The photographer snapped the group as they smiled over their big, new babies. Little Mary Grady of 9 East First street, winner of first prize, secured a doll 33 inches high. The little tot tried in vain to put both arms around her doll in the photograph, but she could not make it.
