FROM BLOOD POISONING Louis Goldish, age 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Goldish, 208 East First street, who was injured Saturday at

LOUIS GOLDISH DIES

Daisy dock, Superior, when the steamer Goldish was attempting to dock, died yesterday morning in St. due to blood poisoning in a wound Coldish received when caught by a rone which cut a gash in his legs. The was held from the Grady & n undertaking rooms at 2 p. m. Interment was in the Jewish cemetery. Goldish was born and educated in Duluth. For the last two years, he was in charge of his father's fish business, and made regular tring with the steamer along the north shora