

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Sexton, 513 East Fifth street, entertained at an informal bridge party Tuesday evening. A charming arrangement of daffodils and tulips formed the decorations. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Murnlan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. John Day, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. John Murray.

The U. S. W. V. club will hold its initial meeting of the year tomorrow afternoon in Memorial hall to make plans for the year's work. The club, which is a branch of the ladies' auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans, is organized for the purpose of raising funds and otherwise assisting the auxiliary. The president is Mrs. Richard Little, and Mrs. R. McDonald is secretary.

Miss Elizabeth O'Neil of Morning-side Park entertained at a children's party on the occasion of her fourth birthday Tuesday afternoon at her home. Games, a prettily served lunch and the presenting of gifts to the hostess occupied the afternoon for the 20 children.

The members of Camp John G. McEwen No. 6, U. S. W. V., and the Ladies' Auxiliary, Camp John G. McEwen No. 3, held a joint installation at Memorial hall Tuesday evening. J. B. Gibson acted as installing officer for the camp, and the following officers were installed: Commander, R. R. Hoetelling; senior vice, Albert LaPoint; junior vice, Hans P. Brenholme; officer of the day, W. L. Pierce; officer of the guard, Nicholas Bergeson; chaplain, Walter B. Butchart; historian, Alva Catlin; quartermaster, George J. Sherman; surgeon, Dr. C. E. French; trustees, C. C. Teare and J. B. Gibson; adjutant, A. E. Lephardt; color sergeant, Richard Little; quartermaster sergeant, Charles F. Loerke.

Mrs. Mary B. Gibson was installing officer for the women. The officers installed were: President, Mrs. Flora Little; senior vice, Mrs. Anna Wetterlund; junior vice, Miss Eleanor Lash; conductor, Mrs. Mary Kriedler; chaplain, Mrs. Alice Pierce; guard, Mrs. Edith Sherman; assistant guard, Mrs. Lueretia Long; secretary, Mrs. Mabel McDonald; treasurer, Mrs. Jennie Leonard. After the installation an informal program was given opening with a well rendered piano duet by Miss Ethel Little and Miss Florence Hunt. Miss Margaret Smollet sang "My Ain Folks," in a charming manner, and as an encore sang Carrie Jacob's-Bond's "Jus' a Wearyin' for You"; Franklin Stevenson followed in a costume Swedish dialect sketch, which was cleverly executed and thoroughly enjoyed. Maude Leonard and Dorothy Kerns sang "Would You?" and "Where are You Going, Pretty Maid," two songs, which gave the little tots opportunity to display their gifts in acting as well as singing. Miss Ruth Glover contributed an enjoyable vocal solo, and Ethel Little and Florence Hunt sang, "The Girl I Call My Sweetheart Must Have Eyes Like You," and as an encore a sprightly military song, "My Yankee Doodle Boy." Mrs. J. B. Gibson, Mrs. Richard Little and Miss Gladys Broadbridge as retiring officers, were presented with gifts from the auxiliary in appreciation of their work during the past year. Later in the evening the members of the auxiliary served a banquet, to about 100 guests at tables decorated with small silk flags.

Mrs. Frank E. Berry, 629 East Fourth street, entertained the Pioneer club at luncheon and cards Wednesday. Five hundred was played by the guests, who were Mrs. Frank Kreager, Mrs. C. H. Stang, Mrs. Joseph Kreager, Mrs. A. Piering, Mrs. John Piering, Mrs. Benjamin Grimm, Mrs. O. H. Hehne of Superior, Mrs. Joseph Gauter, Mrs. Bert Kribsbeck, Mrs. J. Chrven, Mrs. T. Conway of Superior, Mrs. A. T. Lyons and Mrs. C. Crowley of Superior.

Miss Elizabeth Maddox of Duluth, who is on concert tour in the south this winter, was a house guest last week at the home of Charles P. Taft, brother of President Taft, at his ranch in Gregory, Texas.

Roy Fitzpatrick entertained the members of the Lakeside Glee club Wednesday evening at his home on Luverne avenue. Shamrocks and streamers of green made effective decorations, and Mr. Fitzpatrick gave Irish folk dances during the evening. Present were Henry Nesbitt, Will Nesbitt, George McDermid, Harold Butchart, Clarence Cook, Fred Snyder, William McLean, Samuel Ellis, James McLean of Nipigon, Ont., and Glen Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bartholdi, 514 East Fifth street, entertained a party of friends Thursday evening, in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Several handsome gifts in silver were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Bartholdi as souvenirs of the event.

Mrs. T. H. Miller, 827 East First street, was hostess to a number of young people Friday evening on the birthday anniversary of Miss Lena Kruse. Cherry blossoms and red roses were used with delightful effect in the decorations of the living room and dining room. The guests were Miss Marie Miller, Miss Leda Burgreen, Miss Anna Burgreen, Miss Rose Catard, Miss Leona Briggs, Miss Dorothy Mea, Miss Mabel Michaud, Miss Jessie Rowling, Miss Anna Kruse, Miss Elizabeth Kruse, Miss Frieda Kruse, Peter Miller, Herbert Ward, Glen Belleau, Gerald Palmer, Waldemar Melburg, Charlie Johnson and Herbert Johnson.

Miss Nellie and Miss Helma Christopherson, 1113 East Fifth street, were given a surprise party at their home Tuesday evening by a group of friends. The evening was passed informally at games. The guests were Miss A. Robinson, Miss Mabel Christopherson, Miss Elizabeth Shaffer, Miss E. Case, Miss Helen Mathison, Miss Lucille Christopherson, Jack Robinson, F. Clark, Fred Arneson, C. Hanson, Bert Webber, Donald McMellen, Walford Christopherson and Charles Banks.

Miss Oril Ames, 623 West Second street, entertained a party of her little friends Thursday afternoon in celebration of her fifth birthday anniversary. The guests were Laura May Ames, Geraldine Ames, Florence Phillips, Lois McAvoy, Eunice McAvoy, Beatrice Foss, Raymond Arnell, Muriel Ames, Mabel Moffet, Matilda Swenson and Margaret McLaughlin.

The wedding of Miss Alvilda Hjerne to Ernest F. H. Zander took place at high noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hjerne, 818 East Eighth street. Only immediate relatives were present at the ceremony, which was followed by a wedding breakfast. Mr. and Mrs. Zander left last evening for a short trip to Chicago and will be at home, upon their return, at 820 East Fourth street.

Mrs. E. G. Johnson, 2 Adams apartments, was hostess at a luncheon for eight yesterday, followed by an Orpheum party. This was the first of a series of parties at which Mrs. Johnson will entertain.

Mrs. G. H. Craig was hostess Wednesday at a prettily-appointed luncheon for the members of the Ladies' auxiliary, B. of L. E. Among the guests were Mrs. William Marshall, Mrs. T. Killeen, Mrs. Kurker, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Mills, Mrs. McTish, Mrs. Farr and Mrs. Dalton.

Mrs. A. J. Gow, 2327 East Second street, was surprised by a party of friends Thursday afternoon. Those present were Mrs. Thomas Brown, Mrs. F. Holoway, Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mrs. Kennedy McDonald, Mrs. Alexander McDonald, Mrs. Charles Stewart, Mrs. John Brown, Miss McDonald, Miss Jessie Brown, Miss Stewart and Miss Anna McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wedtne, 1208 East Tenth street, entertained at cards Thursday evening, prizes being won by Henry Hagen and James Keef. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Balls, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Keyes, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sabel, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Laudolt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wiley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hector, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. James Keef, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hay, Miss Belle Hay, T. G. Todd and Dave Hay.

Napoleon Charrier was guest of honor at a birthday surprise party at the home of his sister, Mrs. Alexander Stewart, 215 West Fifth street, Tuesday evening. Music and dancing formed the evening's entertainment and Mr. Charrier received a number of gifts from those present, who were Mr. and Mrs. William Reudy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart, Mrs. F. E. Marks, Miss Rose Summers, Miss Margaret Holland, Miss Grace McLennan, Miss Rose McLaughlin, Miss Ericette Bielli, Miss Lottie McLennan, Miss Mary Devaney, Miss May Murphy, Miss Mabel Fix, Miss Clare McLennan, Miss Anna Grumpma, Miss Loretta Lazon, Tom Jewel, Matt Hughes, William Charrier, George Murphy, George Burns, Ray Hughes, Fred Finnigan, Arthur Tomford, Harry Richards and Aunde Summers.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Konkler, 418 West Fourth street, entertained at a card party Thursday evening. A color scheme of red was carried out in the decorations, with hearts, carnations and softly shaded lights. In the dining room was an attractive arrangement of hearts with a center-piece of red carnations, and heart-shaped place-cards.

Five hundred was played at five tables, and favors were won by Mrs. John Paton, George Coleman and W. L. Smith. There were 22 guests.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Konkler, 418 West Fourth street, entertained at cards Thursday evening. Five hundred was played at five tables, the prizes being won by Mrs. John Peyton, George Coleman and W. L. Smith. Decorations of hearts were used with pretty effect throughout the rooms.

Mrs. Ernest Jacobi, 617 West Second street, entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon, in compliment to Mrs. G. R. Jacobi of Grand Forks, N. D. The favors were won by Mrs. Cynde W. Stilson and Mrs. Walter Hall. Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jacobi entertained for Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Jacobi, favors being won by Mrs. Guy Warren, Mrs. David Fairchild, Guy Warren and Dr. E. L. Cheney. Prizes were also given to the honor guests. Bowls of daffodils set the note of yellow about the room. There were 28 guests.

Henry Johnston, William Culligan, Sam Jones and Fred Richardson entertained at the second toboggan party given by them this season Thursday evening. The guests were Miss Vern Padden, Miss Norma Backer, Miss Julia Donahue, Miss Nellie Lofald, Miss Louis Trewartha, Miss Esther Sosnovsky, Miss Viola Padden, Miss Agnes Schwaneckamp, Miss Grace Marks, Miss Marion McKean, Miss May Kelly, Miss Marion Furni, Miss Kaspars Rosewinge, Miss Elizabeth Holden, Miss Ellen Linden, Henry Olson, Herbert Krestensen, Walter Tobin and Harry Kell.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Von Vagenberg, 12 West First street, entertained at cards last evening. Their guests were Miss Katherine Larson, Miss Laura Hughes, Miss Katherine Suers, Miss Mayme Kennedy, Pat Foley, Jack Klase, John Aken and Ray Hughes.

Mrs. Ernest Jacobi, 617 West Second street, entertained at bridge Thursday afternoon, in compliment to Mrs. G. R. Jacobi of Grand Forks, N. D. The favors were won by Mrs. Cynde W. Stilson and Mrs. Walter Hall. Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. Jacobi entertained for Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Jacobi, favors being won by Mrs. Guy Warren, Mrs. David Fairchild, Guy Warren and Dr. E. L. Cheney. Prizes were also given to the honor guests. Bowls of daffodils set the note of yellow about the room. There were 28 guests.