HEBREWS WIL HAVE BIG FARM Association Formed

Cooperative to Cut Down High Cost of Living. PROPOSE TO PURCHASE

TRACT OF 1,000 ACRES Merchants of Duluth, Hibbing and St. Paul Subscribe Stock for Venture.

By the establishment of a Hebrew colony in St. Louis county the Duluth Hebrew Cooperative Farmers' association, an organization formed yesterday, at Kalamazoo hall, 18 West Superior street, hopes to break down the high cost of living problem. A farm of 1,000 acres will be purchased. It is planned to make it a model one. There will be a crean machinery building, farm houses There will be a creamery, stables. At the meeting a fund of $25,000 was subscribed by Hebrew merchants was a large attendance. The associa-tion will be capitalized at $100,000.

The following officers were elected:

was a.

The following offices.

The following offices.

The following offices.

A. X. Litman; treasurer, M. B. Abrahard of the following offices.

The board of division between the following of the following the acceptable by Land.

Profits to Buy Land.

Who operate the farm will a salary basis, it is said, and its that accrue from the sale cis will be turned into more nould any workman desire to the profits that of products will of products will be turned incoming land. Should any workman des take a farm of his own, one w purchased for him adjoining the It is the plan later to establish a cooperative store in Duluth where the products of the farm will be sold to the consumer direct. The new association is following out the plan adopted by similar organizations in other states. Utah and Colorado have such organizations in existence and they have proved a success, it is said.

A portion of the land which will have provided and the post of the plan above a success of the control of the proposed farm was drawn and exhibited at the meeting. acre plot at the meeting.

at the meeting,

Members of the association are

Members of the association are to some the some venture as believe it is long steps to some the consumer of the price of farm products.

Plans have not advanced far enot reading of the farm. and solving the economic questions permanned the price of farm products. Plans have not advanced far enough the farm of the farm of the farm of the farm of the announced, but it is believed it can be made known at the next meeting. It will probably be within miles of Duluth.

Threads of many cities interested he farm can believed this Hebrows of many cities interested in such a movement will be placed on the colony.