(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

WINTON, March 14.—The different township elections here were of unusual interest this year, especially so in the village of Fall Lake, where there was a strong contest for chairman, A. J. Stein winning by the narrow majority of four votes, defeating L. B. Hagen, who has held this office for the last 13 years. The officers elected were: Clerk, Charles Nelson; treasurer, Gus Johnson; assessor, Ture Gustafson; justice, Peter Karon; constables, John Hurtley and Oscar Larson.

The officers elected in the town of Morse are as follows: Supervisor, J. F. Simpson; clerk, H. C. Hurning; treasurer, Thomas S. Williams; assessor, F. W. Bysche; justices, W. F. Walsh and A. H. Peterson; constables, Lacey Frinack and Louis Knoll; overseers of highways, William Byers and Jacob Isaacson.

In the town of Fall Lake the following were elected: Supervisor, Robert Fritz; clerk, J. C. Russell; assessor, G. H. Good; treasurer, August Lindahl; road overseer, Anton Nelhus; constables, Fred La Rue and A. J. Swantz.
