MINE FRAUD SUIT TO BE HEARD BY JUDGE

Trial of the suit recently begun by Herman J. Nathanson against the Eureka Ore company and five individuals to recover an alleged interest in a substantial of the su

B. P. Smith, Henry Johnson, Harry Osterberg, and Henry Sleed entered into a conspiracy to deprive him of an interest in the Madrid mine lease. When the time in which he had to take over the lease had expired, they obtained it through the Eureka Ore company after getting from him certain confidential information regarding values and output, he alleges.

Nathanson says Walter Markham.
