

Sailing Races To be Held Next Week

A series of three sailing races will be held at the main house of the Boat club at 5 o'clock Monday, Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, in which the boats will be manned by crews consisting of two women and one man. The series will be limited to the 28-foot sloops. A bronze and silver cup has been donated by one of the visitors to the club this summer, an enthusiastic sailor, the cup to become the property of the person winning two seasons' races, of which this will be the first. The Boat club officials have put up silver prizes for the winner of each of the three races of the series.

The races will be sailed around a short course near the main clubhouse where the boats will be in view of the spectators during all stages of the races. Much informal practice racing among the women will take place within the next few days. Among the skippers who have already entered, and the boats they will sail are Miss Muriel Prindle, who will sail the Sea Gull; Mrs. Hans B. Haroldson, sailing the Merry Widow; Miss Virginia Currie, sailing the Agwinde; Mrs. S. F. Dibbell, in the Weegin; Miss Elizabeth Lynam, in the Feather; Mrs. Floyd M. Fuller, in the Skude; Mrs. F. H. Waldron, in the Banshee; Miss Ruth Scott, in the Yaqui.

The races will start at 5 o'clock and should be finished at 6:30 o'clock at the latest, giving those who desire to watch the races opportunity to do so from either the cafe or the clubhouse veranda. A number of dinner parties are being planned for these nights.

This will be the second series of women's sailing races of the year, the first of which was held July 31.
