

LAKE BREEZES

Diseases of stomach and intestines,
424-425 New Jersey building.

Here on Business.

J. R. Cameron, assistant general manager of the Canadian Northern railway, is in the city on a short business trip.

Have Sleighride.

The Peerless Laundry company employees entertained at a sleighride and dance at Lester Park last evening.

Wanted in Superior.

Anna Peslar and John Korda were turned over to the Superior police yesterday by Sheriff John R. Meining. They are wanted on a statutory charge.

The March grand jury failed to indict the pair upon information charging adultery. The husband of the woman is the complainant in the case.

Funeral to be Private.

The funeral of Alex McDougall jr., 5-year-old son of Miller McDougall, 1005 East First street, and grandson of Capt. Alex McDougall, will be held today and will be strictly private. The family requests that no flowers be sent. The child died at the city contagion hospital from the effects of septic pneumonia.

Goes to Ohio.

Rev. J. E. Shewell, for the past three years pastor of the St. John's English Lutheran church, has accepted a call to Lorain, Ohio. Farewell sermons will be preached in his local charge on March 30, he leaving on the first of next month for his new pastorate which will be the First Lutheran church of Lorain. Mr. Shewell came to Duluth on graduation from the Mount Airy Lutheran seminary in 1910.

Plan Massmeeting.

The local Zion Gate is planning a massmeeting for next Sunday evening, March 16, at the Adas Israel synagogue, Third avenue East and Third street. The principal speaker will be Rabbi S. Silver of Chicago, his subject will be "Palestine, the Land for the Jews." Rabbi Silver is prominent in the Zionist movement in his home city and took an active part at the last Zion convention held in Chicago.

To Continue Meetings.

The theater meetings being conducted by Rev. M. S. Rice, pastor of the First Methodist church, will be continued. The pastor has been conducting a series of noon meetings at the Lyceum theater. From March 10 to March 20 evening meetings will be conducted at 8 o'clock. A special massmeeting for men will also be conducted at 3:30 p. m. a week from today.