

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Lawrence Dow, speaking on "A Plea for Cuba," won first place in the try for senior orator.

Junior League No. 1 of which Clara Fider is president, has elected Mildred Miller for vice president, Mabel Harker for secretay, and Leland Giddings, treasurer. League No. 2, of which Vernie Larson is president, chose Mildred Martin vice president; Mabler Harker secretary, and Walter Sleeper treasurer. League No. 3, of which Richard Cullum is president, elected Helen Benson as vice president and Clayton Burnside secretary and treasurer.

A regular meeting of the junior leagues will be held Wednesday afternoon in the high school assembly hall, and Prof. A. G. Alexander of the English IV department, will deliver an address on the "Development of the Drama."

A number of high school girls interested in indoor baseball met in the high school gymnasium yesterday for the purpose of organizing. This is the first time in the history of the school that such a move has been attempted, and whether it will be a success depends on the interest the girls display in the work.

Because of the victory of the freshmen girls' basket bail team over the senior squad, the first year players lay claim to the basket ball championship of the high school. Previous to their last victory they decisively defeated the other class teams, and so remain undisputed champions of the school.

Prof. K. G. Olsen, who is taking charge of the tryouts for Wallace cup orator and declaimer, has announced the victors in the preliminary contests recently held among the four classes. In the freshmen class, Esther Abrahamson won first place for declamer, and Jacob Garon was declared orator. No declaimer showed up in the sophomore class, but Albert Armstrong, who spoke on "Opportunities of the Scholar," obtained first place as orator. Dorothy Patton will be the junior declaimer, and Wanda Bergevin the senior declaimer.
