

Piano Soloist at Church Concert

MISS EVA ZALK.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

A large audience attended the musical program given by the choir of St. John's English Lutheran church at the church last evening, under the direction of Mrs. A. B. Siewert.

The cantata "Hear My Prayer," by the choir, was the opening number, followed by a charming group of piano numbers, the Mozart sonata in C major and the Grieg "Ans Holzberg Zelt" prelude, by Miss Sadie Gingold.

"Gurlitt" was a dainty number by Miss May Simon, with Mrs. Siewert at the second piano, and the Schubert-Liszt "Hark, Hark, the Lark," and the Rubinstein etude in C major were delightfully interpreted by Miss Lydia Johnson.

The Mendelssohn concerto in D minor was a piano duet given with fine tonal quality by Miss Eva Zalk and Mrs. Siewert, the closing number being the Liszt "Twelfth Rhapsody," interpreted with excellent technique by Miss Zalk.

At the end of the program the cantata, "Hear My Prayer," was repeated by special request.
