

Mrs. Frank B. Thompson of 18 Fifty-eighth avenue East entertained at a kitchen shower Friday evening in compliment to Miss Helen Dodge, whose marriage to Arthur Loman will take place during May. The house was appropriately decorated in hearts and bells. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Inman, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar G. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Butchart, Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. W. G. Stacey, Mrs. John Norris, Mrs. Emma Tibbitts, Mrs. Myrtle Tibbitts, Miss Adore Dodge, Miss Evelyn Emmons, Miss Hazel Aske, Miss Floss Coleman, Miss Signa Forsell, Miss Edith Forsell, Miss Eleanor Bartholdi, Miss Lydia Bartholdi, Mrs. Gay Huxley of Hill City, Miss Frances Anderson, Miss Ella Luxon, Miss Florence Wait, H. A. Dodge, Frank LeTourneau, Allan Greenfield, Ray Bartlett, Lucian Dodge, Fred Hendrickson and F. B. Thompson.

The Qui Vive circle of Endion M. E. church will entertain at a May-day tea in the church parlors, Nineteenth avenue East and First street, Thursday afternoon. Tea will be served from 3 to 6 and a musical program given, when Mrs. Nell B. Morrison will be heard in vocal numbers and Miss Winnifred Hicks and Miss Lucy Hart will give piano solos. Mrs. C. H. Merritt, chairman of the circle, is directing arrangements for the tea.

The Bishop's club will hold the last study meeting of the year Tuesday evening at the Cathedral club-rooms. Miss Jean Pollier will be leader, and the subject for discussion will be "Lima, Peru." Scripture reading will be by Miss Lucille Willin, and selections by the Bryant school orchestra will be a feature of the evening. Mrs. John F. Killorin will read a paper on "Lima, Peru," and readings will be given by Miss Mary Sheesren, Miss Margaret Eyrton will review current events.

The annual rummage sale for the Children's home will take place Friday and Saturday at 220 West First street, under the management of the board of directors. Last year it was learned by members of the board that several large and valuable bundles were overlooked by the collection committee. In some instances the collectors did not find people at home and in some districts it was a physical impossibility for the committee to reach everyone. This year the directors have arranged that everyone who was overlooked may bring or send bundles to the place of sale Wednesday and Saturday, if that is inconvenient, they may notify any one of the directors acting on the following collection committee and goods will be called for.

Miss Elizabeth Hoatson (phone Melrose 84); Mrs. H. B. Paull and Mrs. A. C. Hubbell will collect west of Twelfth avenue East; Mrs. G. G. Oliver and Mrs. C. E. Lum, district between Twelfth and Fourteenth avenues East; Mrs. W. C. Wideman and Mrs. G. Herbert Jones, district between Fourteenth and Eighteenth avenues East; Mrs. Stanley R. Holten, district between Eighteenth and Thirtieth avenues East below Superior street; Mrs. C. G. Traphagen and Mrs. P. J. Cowen, district between Eighteenth and Twenty-first avenues East above Superior street; Mrs. H. Meyers and Mrs. F. D. Day, district between Twenty-first and Twenty-sixth avenues East above Superior street; Mrs. R. M. Hunter, district of Woodland; Mrs. T. F. Cole will solicit at the Y. M. C. A. and the clubs, the donation of men's clothing being urgently desired; Mrs. Van Loo, Mrs. J. N. McKinley and Mrs. G. G. Oliver will visit the stores and retail houses for rummage donations.

Camp John G. McEwen auxiliary No. 3 gave an entertainment and banquet Tuesday evening in Memorial hall in honor of the Spanish-American war veterans of this city. The affair was in commemoration of the fifteenth anniversary of the call for troops at the beginning of the Spanish-American war. Among the numbers on the program was a song, "Sleep On, Ye Fallen" (Strickland), who gave a review of the Spanish-American war, and of the Duluth boys' departure for the south. Mr. McEwen spoke of the death of his brother John, in whose memory Camp John G. McEwen was named. In a southern hospital. The latter part of the evening was spent in dancing.

The women of the normal school faculty entertained at luncheon at the Spaulding hotel yesterday in honor of three of their number who will be brides of June. Miss Florence D. Pettengill, Miss Effie Godfrey and Miss Lucy Hart. Decorations of pink roses and cupids were prettily used to center the luncheon table. Present were Mrs. C. E. Wallace, Mrs. E. W. Bohannon, Miss Alice Barbour, Mrs. Brown, Miss Harrington, Miss Lucy Tomkins, Miss Mae Picken, Miss Margaret Strong, Miss Mary Jack, Miss Genevieve Taylor, Miss Katherine Post, Miss Ruth Ely, Miss Nellie Emanuelson and Miss Effie Burch.

Miss Adelaide Thurston arrived in the city Thursday to be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Harry Sawyer, and sister, Mrs. Frank R. Parker, 1522 Jefferson street, for a week. Miss Thurston closed her season Sunday evening in "The Love Affair" in Chicago. She will leave for New York following her visit here, and will open the season's engagement in the autumn at Chicago, starting in the same play.

Mrs. Charles A. Rose, 623 East First street, will entertain the 1913 Card club tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Rose will also be hostess at cards Tuesday evening for the members of the club and their husbands.

The Cecilia society will meet with Mrs. Arthur W. Collins, 1931 East Third street, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. A. L. McDonald will be the subject for the afternoon, the influence of the audience on style, with illustrations from Beethoven's Fifth Symphony, played by Mrs. K. A. Ostergren and Mrs. Collins. Other numbers for the afternoon's program will be the "Omni Sabata Serenata luma acesco" (Gumbert), Mrs. A. A. Deslauriers; "Italian" (Mozzkowski), and "Country Dance" (Gevin), Mrs. Collins and Miss Williams.

The wedding of Miss Lou Graham of Superior to Mr. A. Hagen of Fargo, N. D., took place yesterday noon in parlor F of the Spaulding hotel. Dr. M. S. Rice, pastor of the First M. E. church, reading the ceremony. Mrs. Mary Martell of Superior and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moody of Moorhead, Minn., were the guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Hagen left yesterday afternoon for a trip to Chicago and will be at home in Fargo after May 15.

A reception will be held at the home of Miss Helen Plant of Redding road, Cincinnati, this evening, to announce Miss Plant's engagement to Joseph Gidding of this city. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gidding of New York have left for Cincinnati to be present at the announcement party.

The wedding of Miss Jennie Caroline Swanson to Carl A. Olund of this city took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Swanson, 2314 West Third street.

The bride was gowned in white messaline and wore a veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. She was attended by her sister Ruth and the groom's brother, Eric Olund, acted as best man. Rev. P. O. Hanson of the English Trinity church, performed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Olund will be at home after May 1 at 2222 West Fourth street.

Mrs. Joseph Cole, 1105 Fifty-first avenue East, will be hostess at the meeting of the U. S. W. V. club Wednesday afternoon in Memorial hall.

Garfield circle No. 4, G. A. R., will meet for an all-day session Tuesday in Memorial hall. Members are urged to attend, as articles will be made for the sale to be held this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. John Doran, 5040 London road, entertained the London Road Bridge club Monday evening. Cards were played at three tables and the favors were won by Mrs. H. E. Webster and X. F. Russell.

Mrs. W. R. Cameron, 407 East Fifth street, was hostess to a group of dinner guests Tuesday. Spring flowers formed the motif in the decorations. The guests were Mrs. Gay Huntly of Hill City, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Miss Inez Lee, Miss Katie Arenson, Miss Georgina Roger, Miss Anna Jeronimus, Miss Lydia Bartholdi, Miss Elinor Bartholdi, Miss Martha Ostby and Miss Fannie Beck.

The Magblah club will give the following program this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Foresters' hall: Piano duet, Miss Eva Zalk and Miss Sarah Weinberg; violin solo, Miss Sarah Haronimus, with piano accompaniment by Miss Florence Weingarten; address, Mrs. David Kengsberg, and a vocal solo by Miss Daisy Smart.

Ariel hive, No. 275, Modern Macabees, entertained at a hard-times social and mystery supper Friday evening in Old Fellows' hall, Mesaba avenue West and Fourth street. A number of amusing costumes were worn, and the prize for the most unique costume was won by Mrs. Mutch. There were two couples present at the dance that followed. The was: Mrs. Carl Schau, Mrs. McVee, Miss Charlotte Robinson, Miss Miss Edmunds of Pheonning, Mich.; Mrs. Weber, Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. Noyes and Mrs. Engstrom.

Mrs. Robert Rhone, 1522 East Seventh street, will entertain the members of Zenith, No. 10, Woodmen of the World, and their friends at an afternoon tea Thursday afternoon.

Central Link lodge, No. 175, I. O. O. F., will celebrate the anniversary of the order's inception Tuesday evening at Odd Fellows' temple, Mesaba avenue West and Fourth street, with an appropriate program of songs, music and speeches. A feature of the evening's entertainment will be an address on "Physical Value of an Odd Ramshaw" of Cloquet. Members, their families and friends are invited to be present. The committee in charge will be R. McDonald, J. Plank and J. Olson.

The Young Ladies' society of the Westminster Presbyterian church gave a social entertainment in the parlors of the church, Fifty-eighth avenue West and Ramsey street, Monday evening. A program was given and an informal social evening followed. Among the numbers on the program was a song, "Lady of Beauty," by the Jewel-adams quartet, given with a harmony and unity of tone that delighted the audience, with "Mead" as an encore. Miss Myrtle Stark sang "The Rose in My Garden" and "My Laddie" with delightful expression, and two violin duets by Lester Whalen and Marshall Knapp, with piano accompaniment by Professor Rellie were heartily applauded. Readings by Miss Enda Shaw closed the program. The committee in charge were Miss Anna Wagner, Miss Irene Galbraith and Miss Clara Goodhand.

The members of Modern hive, Modern Macabees, will have a social hour following the business session Monday evening in Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue West and First street. Mrs. E. Borth, Mrs. Lake and Mrs. J. Featherly will be hostesses.

The Beneficent degree of Duluth council No. 2, Modern Samaritans, will entertain at a card party tomorrow evening, in K. P. hall.

Mrs. J. H. Gollinger, Mrs. James Lydon, Mrs. E. J. O'Rourke, Mrs. John Murphy and Mrs. E. E. Killen were hostesses at a card party given the Silver Jubilee club Thursday afternoon in Cathedral hall. Five hundred was played and favors were won by Mrs. A. C. McDonald. This is one of a series of entertainments given by the club which is organized for charitable purposes.

The members of the degree team of Court Eastern Star, No. 86, United Order of Foresters, will entertain at a card party Tuesday evening in Foresters' hall, Fourth avenue West and First street. Mrs. T. R. Hancock, Mrs. K. Dutcher and Mrs. Harry Perkins will be the committee in charge.

Mrs. R. Anderson, 119 Eighteenth avenue West, entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of her birthday anniversary. Those present were: Mrs. A. Holmstrom, Mrs. P. Lillberg, Mrs. C. Olson, Mrs. O. Mithun, Mrs. C. Jacobson, Mrs. J. Haugen, Mrs. C. Erickson, Mrs. H. Sims, Mrs. C. Swanson, Mrs. A. Peterson, Mrs. J. Anderson, Mrs. C. Carlson, Mrs. Martha Bender and Miss M. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. James MacGregor, 16 North Eighteenth avenue West, were surprised Friday evening at their home. Five hundred was played at five tables and favors were won by Mrs. E. Ivers, Mr. J. Schotes, Carl Everson and E. Ivers.

The members of Marie Antoinette court, Catholic order of Foresters, will give a social and entertainment Monday evening at St. Jean Baptiste hall, Twenty-fifth avenue West and Third street. Mrs. Gilbert D'Aoust, Mrs. Cavanaugh and Mrs. D. Burnett form the committee in charge.

S. W. Clark, past post commander, was guest of honor at a surprise last evening following the business session of J. B. Culver post, No. 128, in Memorial hall, by his wife in celebration of his birthday anniversary.

An informal social evening was spent.

Mrs. Clark was assisted in serving by Mrs. Alfred Gillen and Mrs. John Burnett.

The Women's Relief corps will entertain at a card party Thursday afternoon in Memorial hall, with Mrs. John Jensen, Mrs. Alfred Gillen, Mrs. H. Brown, Mrs. John Ross, Mrs. Drennan and Mrs. Peer as hostesses.

Mrs. W. H. Farrell, 6009 Raleigh street, and Mrs. LeRoy Bailey, were hostesses at an entertainment Friday evening, in the parlors of the Asbury M. E. church, Sixtieth avenue West and Raleigh street, in compliment to the members of the Epworth league of the church. Effective decorations in the Epworth league colors, red and white, with a large emblem cross for a center, were used. Miss Mildred Ross presided at the refreshment table. A business meeting preceded the social session, at which the annual election of officers was held. Mrs. LeRoy Bailey was chosen president; Mrs. Farrell, first vice president; Mrs. Della Horman, second vice president; Miss Nellie Anderson, third vice president; Mrs. Albert Moldahl, fourth vice president. George M. Cruikshank was elected secretary and Allan Browne, treasurer.

The wedding of Mrs. Betsy Anderson and Walter Forslund took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride, 2025 West Second street. Rev. Swaney Nelson of the First Swedish Baptist church performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Forslund will reside at 2025 West Second street.