

SCHOOL ACTORS IN LIGHT COMEDY

Eveleth Alumni Association Presents "The Private Secretary"
Before a Large Audience.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

EVELETH, May 31.—The play presented by the Eveleth High School Alumni association this afternoon and tonight at the armory was most successful and displayed exceptional talent and careful instruction. The play was a light comedy, entitled "The Private Secretary," and was presented under the direction of Miss M. Feyerelsen of Gilbert. Professor Tobin's orchestra furnished music. The cast was as follows:

"Mr. Marsland, M. F. H.," Percival Pryor; "Harry Marsland," (his nephew) Carl C. Niemi; "Mr. Cattermole," Guy Springer; "Douglas Cattermole," (his nephew) Leslie Tobin; "Rev. Robert Spalding," Lawrence Andrews; "Mr. Sidney Gibson," (a tailor) Harry W. Anderson; "Knox" (a writ server), Maurice Levant; "Edith Marsland," Esther Rabinowitz; "Eva Webster," (her friend), Gertrude Owens; "Mrs. Stead," Jane Mulligan; "Miss Ashford," Teckla Jackson.
