

LAKE BREEZES

Take Superior ferry. Fare 5c.

Start for Convention.

Twelve delegates from Duluth and the range left last evening over the Northern Pacific for Denver, Col., where they will attend the national meeting of a Serbian organization, the Sloga.

Sanity Is Questioned.

John Orvid Swann, age 25, thought to be insane, was taken into custody by the police yesterday morning and was removed to St. Luke's hospital. A petition has been filed in probate court for a hearing.

Continuation School Opened.

Sessions of continuation school of the independent school district of Duluth are being conducted in Washington Industrial high school with 200 students enrolled. Courses are given in various branches of departmental work.

Tells of Duluth's Advantages.

Duluth is prominently mentioned in a new publication entitled "An Agricultural and Industrial Review" issued by George Cram. A full page is devoted to pictures of Duluth scenes and the description gives an excellent resume of advantages of the city.

Youth Arrested.

Cecil Brigham, 22 years of age, was arrested last evening at Lincoln park on a charge of disorderly conduct. The arrest was made by the special police at the park.

Seek to Enforce Lien.

A mechanic's lien case was begun before District Judge Ensign yesterday. C. J. West and Erick Dahl are suing Henry Nesgoda, Victoria Nesgoda and Leon Fox for $141.18, claiming that sum to be due for labor performed on the defendants' property the latter part of last year.

Giving Guides to Duluth.

The "Come to Duluth" booklets issued by the Hanna Information bureau is now on all lake passenger boats. The consignment was sent out yesterday by Mr. Hanna. Through the courtesy of officers of the lines the booklets will be given only to incoming passengers.

Police Players Elect.

At a meeting of the Duluth police baseball team yesterday afternoon Sergeant Butchart was appointed treasurer and manager and Detective Toewe elected to captain the team. Final arrangements were made for the game with the Superior police nine to be played at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

"See Minnesota" Themselves.

Not waiting for the "See Minnesota" tour under auspices of university officials, Miss E. B. Nason and Miss N. M. Shiner teachers in public schools of Minneapolis arrived here yesterday on a trip of inspection. After a few days in Duluth taking trips about the city, they may make a visit to the range before returning to their homes in the Twin Cities.

Partnership Is Dissolved.

J. C. Wesenberg and Severin Simonson, owners and publishers of the Duluth skandinavy, a weekly paper, have dissolved partnership following a district court action in which a settlement was effected. Wesenberg withdraws from the business, leaving Simonson sole owner. The latter brought suit for dissolution of partnership and an accounting. The case was settled when Wesenberg gave his partner a bill of sale and the latter agreed to pay all debts.