

LUMBER COMPANY

BUYS SIXTY HORSES

A claim to have effected the largest individual sale of horses in the history of Duluth was made by Moses Goldberg of 524 West First street yesterday. He sold three carloads containing 60 horses to the St. Croix Lumber company, Minton, Minn. The animals came from southern Minnesota.