

PERSONALS

Bert Karon of the Superior Iron & Metal company leaves this evening on business trip to the Twin Cities.

Mayor M. A. Murphy of Virginia was a visitor in Superior yesterday and was an interested spectator at the Virginia normal football game. He left for Chicago last evening to attend to business matters.

Captain Hill, who has charge of the Becker fleet of boats, left last evening for his home in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Pattison, accompanied by their daughters, the Misses Irene and Lois Pattison, have left on a trip to Boston and other eastern points. They are expected to be away for several weeks.

James Chamberlain, 1706 Winter street, has left for New York city for a visit with relatives. He will be away for a couple of weeks.

Undersheriff Carl Halberg has returned from Waupun, where he took Carl Nyberg to the state prison to serve a term of two years for larceny.