

HEBREW PLAY WAS PRESENTED SUNDAY

Pupils of Local Jewish School Took Parts—Musical Numbers, and Address Given.

"Queen Esther," a Biblical play, was Sunday evening presented by the pupils of the Grand Forks Hebrew school as the second program of the year in a series being given by them.

The play was presented under the direction of S. Weber, instructor of the school, who was presented with a beautiful gold stick pin as an appreciation of his efforts.

The members of the cast who presented the play did admirably, and were highly praised for the manner in which they took their parts. Several addresses and musical numbers were also given.
