

ALBERG COMPANY ASKS TO BE NAMED BANKRUPT

Louis Albenberg, president of the Albenberg company, dry goods merchants, 31 West Superior street, through his attorney, Oliver S. Anderson, filed a voluntary petition with the clerk of the United States court yesterday, asking that the firm be declared bankrupt.

Assets of the company were given as stock in trade worth $25,000 and fixtures, machinery and other property valued at $4,712. The creditors are principally merchandise firms located in New York, Chicago, St. Louis and other cities.
