

NONMEMBERS TO BE ENTERTAINED

New Home of Kitchi Gammi Club Will House Outsiders at Brilliant Function.

MISS NASH IS GUEST OF MRS. HARTMAN THIS WEEK

Series of Teas Given by King's Daughters Will Be Con- tinued.

Tonight will see the first affair at which the members of the Kitchi Gammi club are entertaining for non-members. The receiving hours will be from 8 until 11 o'clock, with dancing in the main cafe. Several informal dinner parties are being planned to precede the reception.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Robert Watson was hostess at a luncheon for eight guests at the Kitchi Gammi.

Among the visitors in Duluth this week will be Miss Sybil Nash of St. Paul, who arrived yesterday, to be the house guest of Mrs. A. W. Hartman, 2406 East Superior street.

The King's Daughters will continue the series of teas which they have been giving at the Jane Listman shop. Mrs. William Pitt Abbott and Miss Lois Trott were in charge of the tea tables yesterday. This afternoon Miss Helen Congdon will preside, and tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Walter Amundson and Miss Dorothy Baker will be in charge. Friday Miss Carolyn Swift and Miss Hazel Britts will be at the tea tables.

Invitations have been issued for a dancing party, to be given Thursday evening, Jan. 29, by the members of the Emmet club at Coffin's academy, Lake avenue and First street. The members of the committee in charge are W. J. McBride, John Mackey, A. J. Powers, John Brown, M. K. Stack, F. L. Ryan, Dr. E. W. Fahey, James W. Lydon, George Power, T. W. Foran, Will Casey and B. T. Martin.

The wedding of Miss Mathilda Berkson, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Berkson, 707 East Second street, and Benjamin D. Bennett of International Falls, Minn., took place yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Forester hall. Dr. Maurice Lefkowitz read the service, assisted by Rabbi Teplitz. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Sadie Berkson, as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Ida Berkson and Miss Mary Simon. Simon Bennett, a brother of the groom, was best man, and David Berkson and Isidor Simon were groomsmen. Miss Sadie Rocklin, Miss Bessie Simon, Miss Sophia Weinstein and Miss Sarah Hurvitch stretched the ribbons, forming the aisle for the bridal party, and little Vernon Weinstein was ring bearer.

The bride was gowned in white duchess satin trimmed with real lace and pearls and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms. The maid of honor wore shadow lace and green crepe over white satin and the bridesmaids' gowns were of yellow satin with overdresses of pink chiffon. They wore corsage bouquets of violets and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served for members of the bridal party and immediate family. A reception was held last evening, to which about 100 guests were invited. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. S. I. Pavian and Mrs. Leo Idzal of St. Paul, Miss Ida Wenner of Crown Point, Ind.; Miss Rose Silk of Hibbing, and A. H. Finkelstein of Winnipeg. Mr. Bennett and his bride left for a wedding trip to Winnipeg. They will be at home at International Falls after Feb. 1.

St. Louis Bay hive No. 887, Modern Maccabees, installed officers last evening in Great Eastern hall, Central avenue. Dr. Isabella Holden of Port Huron, Mich., great medical examiner, conducted the ceremonies, assisted by Miss D. Edmunds of Pinconning, Mich., state deputy, and 12 guards, under the direction of Miss Anna Dion. The hall was decorated in the lodge colors—red, white and black.

The sewing committee of the Ladies' Aid society of St. John's English Lutheran church met at the home of Mrs. George Bayha, 1922 Jefferson street, yesterday afternoon, to organize and make plans for the coming year. The members of the committee are Mrs. Bayha, Mrs. M. B. Wiseman, Mrs. John Allen, Mrs. William Benter and Mrs. O. Olson.

Clifford H. Oppell, 1018 East Sixth street, was the guest of honor at a party given last evening, in celebration of his birthday anniversary. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Newmann, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Isabel, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Budd, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hebner, Miss Agnes Miller, Miss Magdeline Blake, H. Taroldson, H. J. Oppell and H. H. Oppell.

"Character Building" will be the subject of the theosophical lecture to be given at 8 o'clock this evening in the library clubroom by Mrs. Alida E. de Leew of Cleveland, Ohio, national lecturer of the Theosophical society, who has just completed a course of lectures to the members of the local lodge. The lecture this evening is free and everybody interested is invited to be present.

Mrs. Homer Anderson, 813 East First street, and Mrs. F. M. Schuette will entertain the Young Matrons' club of the First Baptist church this afternoon, in the home of the former. This will be the first meeting of the year and a large attendance is desired.

The Mothers' and Teachers' club of Park Point will hold its annual meeting this afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at the Whittier school. All members are urged to be present, as important business will be transacted.

W. H. Appleby, 2124 East Fifth street, announces the engagement of his daughter, Marlon Edith, to Erling Nelson of this city.
