

GILBERT STUDENTS IN PRIZE PROGRAM

Orators and Declaimers of High School Will Compete Tomorrow Night.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

GILBERT, Jan. 12.—High school students will compete Wednesday night in a declamatory contest for prizes in reading and oratory.

The contest has been divided into three parts, oratorical, dramatic and humorous. The following program will be given in the school auditorium:

Oratorical class—"The Return of Regulus," Arthur Hill; "Abraham Lincoln," William Binney; "Intervention for Cuban Independence," Manly Tibbetts.

Dramatic class — "Guinevere," Gertrude Rubenstein; "The Sign of the Cross," Ina Beldo; "Jerry, the Bobbin Boy," Salma Rissanen, "Mistress Sherwood's Victory," Helmi Abrahamson.

Vocal solo, Angela Schumacher; music, male quartet.

Humorous class — "Unexpected Guests," Beatrice Connors; "The Punishment of Robert," Tim Shean; "The Bear Story," Isabelle Lalonde; "The Day of Judgment," Mildred Stevens.
