HALLOWEEN FUN AT NORTHLAND

Dinner-Dance at Country Club
Attracts Many—Miss Stockman's Luncheon.

MRS. OXMAN HOSTESS
AT MOCK MARRIAGE

Benson-Brown and Dutton-Zuck
Weddings—Many Halloween Parties.

Halloween was celebrated with due ceremony, with dancing, dining and jollity, last evening at Northland Country club. Jack o'lanterns and miniature witches assisted in giving the proper atmosphere for the occasion, and the walls were attractively hung with Princess pine. In the large living room wistaria drooped from the lights in the ceiling, adding to the attractiveness.

Pumpkin blossoms were festooned about the walls of the large dining room and in diamond shape on the ceiling. In one of the smaller rooms there was a dainty lattice work of black and yellow, the Halloween colors. The tables had bouquets and masses of baby yellow and white chrysanthemums. The menus and dance programs had fascinating little black cats with lanterns on their backs, witches on broomsticks, and other appropriate symbols.

Among the hosts at dinner were: Mrs. L. D. Fraker, with party of 10; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gillette, with nine guests; Charles McLennan, eight; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Ryerson, seven; Fred Wolvin, seven, and many smaller parties.

The La Brosse orchestra gave an enjoyable program of dance music. There were 100 guests for dinner, and many more came in during the evening for the dancing.

Miss Stockman of Scotland, who is the guest of Mrs. L. E. Arnold, entertained at luncheon at the Country club yesterday. There were eight covers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ray Pattinson and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Fenton will entertain at an old-fashioned Halloween party tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pattinson, 1218 East Fifth street. There will be 25 guests.

Miss Pauline Alford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Alford of Hunters Park, and a member of the junior class at Oberlin college, has been elected social secretary of the Minnesota club at Oberlin college. At present there are 38 Minnesota students enrolled in this state club. They meet frequently for parties, picnics, and general entertainments promoting larger acquaintance and good fellowship. The state clubs are a feature of the cosmopolitan undergraduate life at Oberlin.

Mrs. William C. Oxman, 5 East Fifth street, entertained last evening for her sister, Miss Eva Oreckovsky, whose wedding to Charles Finkelstein will take place Nov. 10.

Various games filled the evening, the principal feature of which was a mock marriage.

The bride was Miss Oreckovsky herself, but her bridegroom for the occasion was Miss Esther Zurosky, Miss Lena Rucklin, as minister, tying the near-nuptial knot. Miss Minnie Winer was maid of honor, with Miss Rae Zurosky and Miss Sarah Kassmir as flower girls. Miss Dolly Polinsky had the important position of best man.

Red hearts and cupids were appropriately used in decorating. There were 30 guests.

Miss Minnie Winer and Miss Ida Oreck will entertain in compliment to Miss Oreckovsky and Charles Finkelstein Monday evening at Talmud Torah auditorium, dancing being the amusement.

Miss Bessie Altman, 28 East Third street, will entertain Sunday afternoon at an aluminum shower, and a handkerchief shower will be given for the bride-to-be on Thursday by Mrs. L. Oreck, 5 West Fourth street.

The teachers of Salter school entertained informally at a Halloween party at the school last evening. Music was furnished by the Esther Comberg orchestra.

The Mother's club of the Merritt school will hold its first meeting of the year this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the school building. Plans for the year's work will be discussed.

The Ladies' Aid society of Asbury M. E. church will give a reception next Thursday evening at the parsonage, 6009 Raleigh street, in honor of Rev. W. H. Farrell and Mrs. Farrell. The principal speakers will be: Dr. M. F. Burns, Rev. Ulysses S. Villars of Lester Park M. E. church, Rev. George E. Silloway of Grace M. E. church, and Mason Forbes.

The Sunday School Girls' quartet will furnish music during the evening. There will be a vocal duet by Ray Abbott, and James Coole, and Miss Maude Gilbert and Mrs. William Skafte will give piano selections.

The Washburn school will hold a Halloween community party on Saturday evening. The upper floor of the building will be given over to grown persons. A program of games has been arranged for the primary and upper grade pupils. There will be appropriate decorations.

Miss Olga Zuck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Zuck, 718 East Fifth street, and Lee Dutton will be married tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Paul T. Bratzel, pastor of St. Paul's German Evangelical church, will read the service.

The bride will be attended by Miss Anna Stenglen, and Carl Zuck, brother of the bride, will be best man. Mr. and Mrs. Dutton will leave for a trip and will make their home in this city after Dec. 1.

The wedding of Miss Freda Brown, daughter of Charles Brown, 405 East Eighth street, and John Benson, took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Palmer, 1203 North Fifty-seventh avenue West. Rev. Paul T. Bratzel, pastor of St. Paul's German Evangelical church, read the service.

Miss Alva Benson, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid, and Charles Jensen of Superior, was best man. Little Alma Yager, in a dainty white frock and carrying a French basket filled with roses, acted as flower girl. The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law.

Miss Clara Neuman played the Lohengrin wedding march and Miss Phoebe Palmer, niece of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly." The ceremony took place under an archway of ground pine, ferns and white roses. Baskets of roses were placed about the rooms. The dining room was charmingly decorated with pink roses.

The bride wore a white crepe de chine gown with a tunic of shadow lace trimmed with white chiffon rosebuds and pearls. A cluster of lilies of the valley and myrtle was arranged in her veil. Her bouquet was a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was gowned in white crepe de mator with an accordeon-plaited tunic and carried pink roses.

A reception and supper followed the ceremony. There were 40 guests. Assisting in the dining room were: Miss Freda Brown, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Florence Palmer. Mrs. William Bennawels and Mrs. F. J. Palmer received.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr.

and Mrs. Lund of Superior, and the bridegroom's father, Mr. F. Benson of Arnold, Minn.
