A dosen of Mrs. R. M. Howells' lady friends surprised her Saturday afternoon at her home on Ninth avenue north, and, in honor of her birthday anniversary, presented her with a silver cold meat fork and handsome vase. The hours were spent socially, and a dainty lunch which the guests had prepared, was served.

Mrs. D. J. Hull, of Ninth street south, entertained at a thimble bee this afternoon, complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Vernon, of Chicago, who will be a guest at the Hull home for another week. The guests were ladies from the immediate neighborhood, and the afternoon was enjoyed in an informal social way, with a dainty lunch as a feature.

The Lady Knights, a young ladies' social club of a dozen members, enjoyed a progressive Hallowe'en party Saturday evening, visiting at the Ed George O'Leary and E. Larson homes, at such of which homes they enjoyed varied amusements and a lunch appropriate to the occasion. They were all garbed in Hallowe'en costumes, and enjoyed a very jolly time.

Miss Myrtie Ross, of Courthouse square, entertained fourteen young lady friends Saturday evening at a Hallowe'en party at her home. The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion, and a cobweb of fortunes and other Hallowe'en games were in-dulged in, after which a dainty lunch was served. All enjoyed a very pleas-ant evening.
