

MISELBERG, WHO SHOT GIRL, HELD FOR JURY

Would-Be Slayer of Sarah Berzon
Waives Examination—Girl's
Recovery Doubtful.

Appearing in municipal court yesterday morning on a charge of assault in the first degree, Mike Miselberg, age 25, who shot and seriously wounded Sarah Berzon, age 23, his former sweetheart, waived examination and was held for the grand jury.

Miselberg entered the home of Morris J. Widdea, 916 East Fifth street, at 1:20 o'clock yesterday morning, crept to the room where Miss Berzon was sleeping, and fired three shots at her. All took effect.

At St. Mary's hospital last night it was stated that Miss Berzon was resting well but that it is not yet known whether her recovery can be expected.
