

M. GOLDSTEIN, NEAR CENTENARIAN, DEAD

---

Duluthian Would Have Been 99
Years Old in Two Weeks.
Ill Only a Few Days.

Had Morris Goldstein, 322 East Ninth street, lived two weeks longer he would have been 99 years old. Mr. Goldstein, who had lived in Duluth 24 years, died early yesterday morning. His funeral was held at 11 o'clock yesterday from the residence, and burial was in the Jewish cemetery.

Wednesday night a number of his friends and relatives were at the residence to see Mr. Goldstein and at that time he was conscious and talked freely. When everybody in the house retired for the night he was resting comfortably, and his death was not discovered until yesterday morning. His last illness began a week before the day he died.

Mr. Goldstein leaves three sons and two daughters, besides his widow who is 86 years old. B. Goldstein, one of the sons, with whom his parents have made their home for a number of years, has a store at Fifth avenue West and Michigan street.
