

VIRGINIA BOY SCOUTS TO "HIKE" SATURDAY

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

VIRGINIA, Nov. 4.—The reorganized Boy Scouts of this city will "hike" Saturday to the country north of Virginia to pass a day roughing it in the woods. There has been a steady increase in the membership since the re-organization.

Scout Master Joseph Silver, rabbi of the B'nai Abraham synagogue, has divided the work so that the Revs. Hans J. Wolner and J. Emmett Porter, assistant scout masters, will have the three meetings of the week under their direction.
