

CLASS DEBATERS AT CENTRAL ARE CHOSEN; SCHEDULE ARRANGED

Class debating teams at Central high school were chosen yesterday and the interclass schedule was issued. Members of the four teams are as follows:

Seniors — Irving Grover, Albert Armstrong, Sam Litman.

Juniors—Jacob Garon, George McFarlane, Sam Gofen.

Sophomores—Emanuel Cook, Max Goldberg, Galen Pearson.

Freshmen—Sam Davis, Edward Hansen, Edward Harris.

Instead of debating on the state question, as was originally planned, the debators will take the question, "Resolved, That the U. S. Armament is Insufficient and Should be Increased."

The first debate will be between the juniors and seniors and will take place Wednesday, Nov. 18, the seniors upholding the affirmative. The freshmen-sophomore affairs will take place the following Tuesday, and the winners of the two debates will meet on some date to be arranged later, to compete in chapel for the championship of the school.
