

The Week That's Past And the One That Is to Come.

Christmas dinners and family reunions were, many in Duluth on Christmas day. Students returned from their colleges and other members of families, sojourning in other cities, returned home for the occasion.

The Normanna male chorus gave two delightful concerts at the Lyceum theater, assisted by prominent artists. Miss Marie Merrill and Fred Wolvin entertained at a dancing party at Northland Country club on Christmas eve.

The engagement of Miss Elsa Margaret Biehermann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bieherman, to George Howard Crosby, jr., was announced during the week. Another engagement is that of Miss Dorothy Elizabeth Thwing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Thwing, to Guy W. Rogers of Fond du Lac, Wis. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wagner announced the engagement of their daughter, Beulah, to Alastair Duncan Guthrie the early part of the week. That of Miss Alice Louise Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Lang to Henry Hobart Bogardus of Chicago was another.

Northland Country club was the scene of a delightful dancing party on Tuesday evening. The dinner parties preceding it included 150 persons.

Oren Brown was host at a theater party at the Orpheum theater Monday evening in compliment to his guests, Miss Maude Brennan of New York and Miss Helen Bridgman of Brooklyn.

Miss Harriet Harrison will be hostess at a dancing party for a group of the younger set tomorrow evening at Northland Country club. The affair will be informal.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Myers will entertain at a dancing party at their home on Wednesday evening for their son, Cecil Myers. The guests will be members of the junior set.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leon Hall (Miss Dorothy Shoemaker) will present scenes from "Othello," Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Little theater, for the benefit of the Duluth Center of the Drama League.

Frank Farrell and Laverne L. Logan will be hosts at a dancing party for 125 persons at Prof. Loo's studio tomorrow evening. It was to have been given Tuesday evening, but a change in the date has been found necessary.

The Country club will have a children's party tomorrow afternoon and on Tuesday afternoon there will be a dancing party for the junior set.

The Assembly will entertain at its Christmas party at the Spalding ball-room Tuesday evening.

The Duluth Elks will entertain at a New Year's eve dancing party at their clubrooms.

Two Orchestras for Kitchi Gammi Watch Party.

The watch party at the Kitchi Gammi club on New Year's eve promises to be an enjoyable affair. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock, the Esther Gomborg orchestra to play in the art room. In the main lounge, Charles Helmer's orchestra will furnish the music. Supper will be served to those who have made reservations, in the dining room at 11:15 o'clock.

There will be vaudeville numbers and songs.

Young Women Hostesses

At Evening's Jollity.

Miss Marie Merrill entertained at dinner last evening at her home, 2626 Greysolon road, prior to Miss Betty Merrill's dancing party at Northland Country club. Those at table were Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Merrill, Miss Dorothy House, Francis P. Sears of Boston, Fred Wolvin and Hubert d'Autre-mont, in addition to the two young hostesses.

After attending Miss Betty's dancing party for a short time, at which 45 young people were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, the guests went on to that given by Miss Muriel Prindle at her home, 2211 Greysolon road.

Miss Prindle had 20 guests, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. William Prindle. La Brosse's orchestra played for Miss Merrill's party and the Esther Gomborg orchestra furnished the music for Miss Prindle's dance.

Miss Schmied Will Study

Ten Hours a Day.

Miss Berta Schmied, who will leave for New York tomorrow for a three weeks' stay, is planning a 10-hour day of work while she is away. It is the only way she can manage to include all she wishes to accomplish. She will specialize in the newest social dances with Joan Sawyer and Maurice, and will have private work in gymnastic dancing and children's rhythmic work under the celebrated Russian dancing master, Chalf. With Kitty Cheatham she will continue her work in piano monologues.

Of course Duluth will get the benefit of all this additional study on Miss Schmied's return.

Miss Chambers Weds

Dr. Savage of Wallace, Idaho.

The wedding of Miss Marie Elizabeth Chambers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard George Chambers of the St. Regis apartments, and Dr. James Arthur Savage of Wallace, Idaho, took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Bruce V. Black of Union church read the service. The bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Chambers of Minneapolis were the attendants. Mrs. Roland Morton played the wedding march before the ceremony and "A Perfect Day" was sung by Frank Hathaway.

The bride wore a white charmeuse gown with an overdrape of knife-plaited chiffon trimmed with orange blossoms and pearl ornaments. The bodice was fashioned of Duchess lace. The matron of honor was gowned in pink.

Holly formed the decorations about the rooms. Mrs. A. G. Bousfield presided in the dining room, assisted by Miss Amanda Meier, Miss Beatrice Oie, Miss Juanita Richmond and Miss Louise King.

Dr. Savage and Mrs. Savage left for a trip to Chicago and New York and will return to Duluth before going west to make their home.

Out-of-Town Guest

At Christmas Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Gibson, 3301 West Fifth street, entertained at a dinner party Christmas day. The dining room was draped in the Christmas colors and a basket of holly and evergreen formed the centerpiece. Evergreen and holly were used about the other rooms and there was a Christmas tree.

Covers were laid for 24. Roger Gibson of Devils Lake, N. D., was an out-of-town guest.

Benefit Performance Of "Traveling Salesman."

A benefit performance for the Twentieth Century club will be given Monday evening, Jan. 4, by the Baldwin Players. "The Traveling Salesman" being the play presented.

At the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs it was decided to raise an endowment fund for traveling and other expenses so that those women not possessed of large means might hold office and attend the meetings of the conventions. Minnesota, at the Rochester state federation meeting, pledged $3,000.

The performance of Jan. 4 is for the purpose of raising the Twentieth Century club's allotment of this amount. Tickets are being distributed by the finance committee.

Miss Boss Hostess

At Informal Tea.

Miss Agnes Boss, 4031 East Superior street, was hostess at an informal tea yesterday afternoon. There were Christmas decorations of holly and evergreen and in the dining room an attractive centerpiece was formed of red roses.

Entertains Informally

For Minneapolis Guest.

Miss Ida Berkson, 613 East First street, entertained informally last evening in compliment to her guest, Miss Flora Morris of Minneapolis. There were 20 guests. Music and dancing formed the amusements. Miss Morris will leave this afternoon for her home.

Christmas Dinner Given

For Sixteen Guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Getty, 523 East Fourth street, entertained at a dinner party Christmas day for 16 guests. Holly and evergreen formed attractive decorations. George Burke of Cloquet, Minn., was an out-of-town guest.

Egypt to Be Studied

By Saturday Club.

The Saturday club will meet Saturday afternoon in the library club-room with Mrs. T. W. Hoopes as leader.

Mrs. W. A. McGonagle will give a talk on "Egypt's Contribution to Literature," and "Tombs of the Barons" and "Abydos Denderah" will be discussed by Mrs. A. W. Nichols. Mrs. Hoopes will have "Papyrus Hunting" and "Hieroglyphics" for her subjects.

Will Be Hosts

At New Year's Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Worth, 1818 Minnesota avenue, will entertain at a dinner party New Year's day. Covers will be laid for 16.

Lester Park Women

Will Have Musicale.

The Lester Park Literary club will give a musical afternoon at the home of Mrs. Theodore Hollister, 5014 London road, on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Frank LeTourneau is in charge and has arranged the following program: Illustrated talk on the life of Beethoven and his compositions, Miss Bernice Haverly; "Growth and Development of Music," Mrs. LeTourneau; vocal solos, Mrs. Edgar G. Smith and Mrs. Frank Bartlett.

Women's Council Meeting

Postponed to Jan. 8.

Owing to the first Friday of January falling on New Year's day, the Woman's council has postponed its meeting until the following Friday, Jan. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Waste, 522 Eleventh avenue East, entertained at dinner Christmas night. There were 10 covers. Christmas decorations were used effectively.

Frederick Starr will lecture at Pilgrim Congregational church Tuesday evening, Jan. 5, at 8:15 o'clock, under the auspices of the Collegiate Alumnae association. Mexico will be his general subject. Professor Starr is authority on this, as on anthropological subjects.

The regular meeting of the Woodland Echo club will be held tomorrow evening in the form of a Christmas party at the home of Miss Gertrude Dickey, 336 Sixty-second avenue West.

"The New Year" will be the subject of the morning service today at 10:30 o'clock at Westminster Presbyterian church, Fifty-eighth avenue West and Ramsey street, of which Rev. W. L. Staub is pastor. Sunday school will meet at noon. L. A. Barnes is superintendent. At 6:45 o'clock this evening the Christian Endeavor will meet.

The cantata, "A Night in the Orient," by Adam Geibel, will be given at the evening service at 7:45 o'clock. The program will be as follows: Introduction, piano; opening chorus, duet and the choir; "Song of Tax Gatherers," male voice and choir; "Song of the Pilgrims," choir; "Shepherd's Song," soprano, male voice and chorus; "Song of the Wise Men," male voice and chorus; "Song of the Soldiers," male voice and choir; "We've Found Him," choir; "Lullaby," sopranos and altos; closing song, soprano, alto and choir. Miss Clara Goodhand will be the accompanist. Marshall Knapp, violinist, will play the Barcarolle from the "Tales of Hoffman."

Miss Myrtle Smythe, 612 Twenty-second avenue West, entertained at cards Friday evening. Five hundred was played and the favors were won by Miss Ella Kleutz, Miss Olga Benson, Miss Pearl Johnson and H. A. Ebmer. The guests were Miss Elma Ferguson, Miss Louise Johnson, Miss Ella Kleutz, Miss Pearl Johnson, Miss Olga Benson, Ernest Olson, Fred Johnson, Durell Hayes, Charles Harris, Fred Collins and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ebmer of Virginia.

Temple Emanuel Bible class will hold its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the library clubroom. Mrs. A. Gingold, Mrs. Maurice Lefkovits and Mrs. A. Karon will give current events. Mrs. D. Frelmuth will have charge of the Scripture reading, followed by a discussion by Dr. Maurice Lefkovits.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bassett, 2206 West Fourth street, were honor guests at a surprise party Saturday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert L. Barndale, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Pederson, Mr. and Mrs. George Helgeson, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Horstad, Mr. and Mrs. John Lindburg, Mrs. E. R. Backstrom, Mrs. A. Hammerburg, Miss Inga Pederson, Miss Betsy Summerset, Miss Lois Barn-dale, Miss Bertha Pederson, Miss Elme Backstrom, Miss Gennie Helgeson, Miss Madeline Bassett, John Monstad, Harry Olson, Albert Broathen, N. Olson, A. J. Berg, Hans K. Johnson, Master Carl Pederson, Master Hjalmer Helgeson, Master Raymond Lindberg, Master Roy Hammerburg and Master Arnold Bassett.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Johnson, 1106 East Second street, entertained at a dinner party Christmas Day, the affair being in the nature of a family reunion. Pink carnations and ferns were used as a centerpiece at the dining table, and holly and wreaths of evergreen brightened the living room.

The out-of-town guests were Miss Anna Wolfrom of Estes Park, Cal., Miss Anna Tuberg of Minneapolis and Lewis Wolfrom of Nipicon, Ont. Covers were laid for 16.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gibson, 113 North Fifty-first avenue West, entertained at a dinner party, Christmas day. The rooms were gay with holly and evergreen, and Christmas bells hung from the chandeliers. A basket of holly and evergreen formed the centerpiece at the dining table.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Van and little son Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Krackenburg and little daughter Namoi, Mrs. Scanlon, Miss Irene Scanlon, William Stickney, Earl Scanlon, Dewey Scanlon and Thomas Scanlon.