

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

A paper on the lives and mathematical works of Blaskora and Omar Khayam, read by Miss Margaret Besnah, featured the program given at the meeting of the Thalian society yesterday afternoon. A discussion of current mathematical questions was led by Miss Agnes E. Wells, counselor.

About 50 members of the Musicale society took part in a rehearsal in the assembly room, under the direction of A. F. M. Custance, in preparation for the concert to be given Feb. 20.

The Burnett immigration bill will be discussed at the weekly meeting of the Stump society this afternoon. Morris Litman will be the chief negative speaker.

The group picture of the 1914 Zenith board was taken yesterday afternoon. The following were in the picture: Editor, Harold Bradley; principal, Leonard Young; Miss Wilhemina Case, class adviser; Professor Taylor, faculty treasurer; Harold Coe, junior editor; Miss Pearl McCormick, Miss Ruth Allan, Miss Mary McLean, Miss Ruth Fisher, Miss Dorothy Hopkins, Miss Margaret Besnah, Miss Beatrice Forsythe, Oliver Vivian, Sam O'Gorman, Harold Smithies, Fred Schiller and Leo McNally.

Members of the senior commercial club will entertain a party on St. Valentine's day for the graduates of the commercial department of the school. Miss Amy Helmer, Hazel Moir, Albert Olson and Oliver Vivian compose the committee in charge.

During chapel exercises this morning the "A" and "B" honor roll lists for the first semester will be read. These are the most important published during the school year.

The regular weekly rehearsal of the school orchestra will take place this afternoon.

Chapel exercises this morning will be the last of the week. School will be dismissed this afternoon for a two-day vacation and will be resumed on Monday.
