

NORMAL NOTES

During the regular chapel exercises Monday the school chorus sang two songs, "Old English Hunting Song" and "Slumber Song" (Held-Booth). A violin obligato, arranged for the latter selection, was played by Eva Alford. Dr. Kline then read several interesting selections from a very old book written by Madame Cleland, entitled "Propriety and Politeness in Society." The book is a translation from the French and was written in 1790.

* * *

Sarah Kaner entertained at a birthday spread in the lunch room Thursday. The guests were: Florence Milavetz, Esther Klatsky, Selma Oreckovsky and Lillian Karon.

* * *

Friday was Mothers' day in the primary department. A special program was arranged for the day.

* * *

Teresa Cox, a member of the senior class, has withdrawn from school on account of illness. She will resume her studies in the fall.

* * *

Mamie Granholm, Maedi Takkenen and Mary Mattson entertained at a farewell spread in honor of Petra Heland Saturday evening. There were 15 guests.

* * *

Mercedes James and Esther Sletten are the week-end guests of Nellie Krvin at her home in Cloquet.

* * *

Miss Pearl Gay of Moose Lake visited her sister, Myrtle, at Washburn hall Wednesday.

* * *

On Tuesday Bernice Provinske gave a birthday spread in honor of Ruth Monger. Lelah Aiken, Veronica O'Hara and Margaret McCrum were guests.

* * *

A number of the senior and junior girls enjoyed a spread in the lunch room Friday. Those present were: Margaret McCrum, Margaret Dennis, Betty Erickson, Beatrice Hughes and Marie Clement.

* * *

Mrs. B. C. Finnigan of Grand Rapids visited her daughter, Frances, at Torrance hall Wednesday.