

RABBI EMIL HOROWITZ TO LEAVE FOR NEW YORK

Having resigned as superintendent of the Montefiore Hebrew school, in which capacity he has acted for the past two and one-half years, Rabbi Emil Horowitz, with his family, will leave for New York April 1. He has had several calls from congregations, but says that he will make no definite decision as to his future work until he has reached the metropolis, where Rabbi Horowitz will make his home.
