
SPRING EXHIBIT AT N. Y. IMPORTING CO.

Silvian Returns From Buying Trip With New Stocks of Oriental Merchandise.

W. Silvian of the N. Y. Oriental Importing company reports the biggest purchases for spring that he has ever made. The display and sale of new goods starts today in the Oriental shop in the Manhattan building. Mr. Silvian says he bought direct from the government and showed invoices to back up his statement. The new merchandise includes a wide variety of Parisian suits and gowns, and a stock of tremendous proportions in linens and laces.
