

SUPERIOR DEPARTMENT

LOCAL MAN FIGHTS EXTRADITION HERE

Goldfine, Alleged Butter Thief, in East and Wants to Remain There.

The extradition case of Harry Goldfine of Superior, who is wanted by Sheriff Gustave Carlson here for stealing 150 pounds of butter from a Northern Pacific box car some time ago, is to come before the court at Elizabeth, N. J., today, according to news received yesterday from Deputy Sheriff Carl Norquist, who is at Elizabeth.

After making the alleged robbery, Goldfine made good his escape to Elizabeth where he was caught by the police. Extradition papers were served on the governor of New Jersey by Governor McGovern of Wisconsin, but Goldfine brought the case before court. Deputy Sheriff Norquist left for Elizabeth some time ago and, if extradition is allowed, will return to Superior with the prisoner.
