

GOLDISH VESSEL MAKES FIRST TRIP OF SEASON

After a three-day delay at Grand Marais because of heavy ice sheets, the tug L. Goldish returned last night from the north shore. This was its first trip of the season. Herring, trout and salt fish composed the cargo. On its trip to Grand Marais and several points beyond, the L. Goldish was laden with supplies for the north shore settlers.