CRIPPLED WOLF, SLAYER OF HUNDREDS OF CATTLE, FINALLY ROPED BY COWBOY

(News Tribune Special.) MARMARTH, N. D., June 18.—There is joy among the cattlemen of North Dakota and Montana over the capture of old "Club Foot," the deformed wolf, that has probably killed hundreds of cattle. Stockmen had offered a reward of $100 in addition to the usual $20 reward for wolves. Oscar Wood and Lee Gilmore captured "Club Foot" after a sensational race through a part of the bad lands. They were riding that section and coming through a draw found the wolf gorged on a recent kill. The animal started to run, but Gilmore turned it toward Woods, who succeeded in roping it. The wolf weighed 225 pounds. About two-thirds of one front foot was gone, probably having been cut off in a trap. It had been known in this section 10 or 12 years.

After Banquet by Local Money Lenders They Take Lake Trip to Washburn.

(News Tribune Special.)

ASHLAND, Wis., June 18.—One hundred and fifteen members of the State Bankers' association arrived at Ashland shortly before 8 o'clock this morning and spent the day in the vicinity of Chequamegon bay.

They were banqueted at the Hotel Knight upon their arrival, being served with a regular course banquet. After breakfast they were taken on an automobile trip as far south as Wausau, across the country to Marquette and then back to Ashland. Later the bankers boarded the steamer Easton for Washburn, where they were met by a party of business men, which place they went by automobile to Bayfield, returning to Ashland on the Easton and leaving at 5 p. m. for Mellen.

The building was a two-story wooden structure. The origin of the fire is unknown, but was first discovered in the upstairs bedroom. Some furniture and most of the clothing of the family was saved, but the boarders who were at work lost everything. One man lost $500 in cash. The flames, which were fanned by a brisk southwest wind, would have spread rapidly to the surrounding buildings but for the co-operation of the Newport Mining company's fire team with the city motor truck. ## BOY YEGGS TAP CASH REGISTER

Unhook Screen Door and Rifle
Till of $2.56 in Pennies.
Second Robbery of Place.

(News Tribune Special.)

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., June 18.—
For the second time A. W. Zaloudek was made the victim of burglars, probably boys, who broke into his meat shop early today, and secured
$2.56, mostly in pennies.

The thieves gained entrance to the store by removing the hinges of an outer screen door and unhooking an inner one by trusting a wire through the screen. The door is never locked.

The cash register is also left open at night, as Zaloudek would rather have thieves help themselves to the pennies, which are usually the only money left in the drawer, than to smash the expensive register.
