

LAKE BREEZES

Mrs. Cleveland's Sister Dies.

Mrs. Mary A. Jarvis, sister of Mrs. Henry Cleveland, died at her home in Syracuse, N. Y., Sunday, according to information received by Mrs. Cleveland.

Hunting for Arthur Lee.

Police are trying to locate Arthur Lee, age 26, who has been missing since June 7. The request for a search came from J. W. Greenfield, 2713 West Second street.

Trival Held to Grand Jury.

Gust Trival, charged with attempted burglary at the Grace hotel Sunday night, was arraigned in municipal court yesterday and bound over to the grand jury.

Beaudin Guilty—Sentence Deferred.

Edward Beaudin, also known as Elzer Beaudin, appeared before District Judge Dancer yesterday and pleaded guilty to second-degree grand larceny. Beaudin admitted the theft of $102.50 June 18 from Clementine Beaudin, a relative living at 31 Twenty-third avenue West. The court postponed sentence.

Quigley "Sees" Coney Isle.

When Roy J. Quigley, day clerk at the Holland hotel, left on his vacation last Friday he would not tell his destination. Yesterday Duluth friends received postal cards sent by him from Coney Island and Atlantic City.

Widow Would Be Administratrix.

Mrs. Charlotte L. Brown, widow of William Brown, yesterday filed a petition with the probate court asking for letters of administration on the estate. Brown died at Chisholm May 29. His estate is valued at $2,500. The widow and one child are the only heirs.

Investigate Tornick Case.

Nick Tornick, hotelkeeper at Kramer, who was arrested Monday night on a charge of passing worthless checks, pleaded guilty in municipal court yesterday, but the case was continued until today for further investigation of his alleged operations in Superior as well as here.

Jewish Literature Is Theme.

Judge Phillip P. Bregstone of Chicago, who has been lecturing extensively this summer on Zionistic topics, tonight will talk on "The Rise and Development of Jewish Literature" in Moses Montefiore auditorium, Third avenue East and Third street. He speaks under the auspices of the Kodivrim society. The lecture is open to the public.

Asks Street Work Bids.

Advertisement for bids for improving South First avenue East from Railroad to Buchanan street and from Sutphin street to Lake avenue was begun yesterday by Charles G. Futter, secretary of the public works division. It is estimated that the work will cost $40,000. Bids will be requested on specifications calling for sandstone, brick and concrete. Commissioner Murchison said. They will be opened on July 6.

Review Board Session Featureless.

The second day's session of the board of review, sitting to adjust personal property tax assessments, was devoid of interest. Instead of the smaller complaints of the day preceding, the board heard from business men who evinced dissatisfaction with the appraisal set upon their property. Mayor Prince, City Clerk C. S. Palmer and City Assessor J. A. Scott, members of the board, began their work Monday.