

INFORMALITY IS WEEK'S KEYNOTE

Shown in Dancing Party for Guest by Mr. and Mrs. Towne and Another for Children.

MRS. UPHAM'S MUSICALE HAS CHARMING PROGRAM

Wedding of Miss Enid Freimuth to Sidney Berdie an Affair of Brilliance.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Towne gave a delightful dancing party to a few members of the younger set last evening at the Kitchi Gammi club for their guest, Miss McMurray of Troy, N. Y. The affair was entirely informal, and Miss Esther Gomberg played for a jolly program of dancing. Miss McMurray will remain in Duluth during the present week.

Dr. Homer Collins and Mrs. Collins will entertain a number of the junior set Thursday evening at a dancing party in the ballroom of their home, 2526 East First street, for Miss Cordella Collins and Homer Collins.

Mrs. C. K. Dickerman, 530 Twenty-fourth avenue East, will entertain informally at bridge this afternoon for her guest, Mrs. L. H. Bullard of Flushing, N. Y.

Mrs. Nathaniel J. Upham, 1531 Jefferson street, was hostess at a delightful afternoon musicale yesterday at which 140 guests were entertained. Masses of peonies were effectively used about the rooms.

The musical program was furnished by Miss Frances Woodbridge, Mrs. Jay Frederick Finkelson and Miss Ruth Alta Rogers, Miss Rogers accompanying both the soloists in a musicianly manner.

Much interest was shown in Miss Woodbridge's voice, as it was the first opportunity many had had of hearing her since her return to the city. She sang a group of German songs and a charming sheaf of lyrics in English by Canning, Saar, Chadwick and Henschel, closing the series with "One Fine Day," from Puccini's "Madame Butterfly." Her most enjoyable number was probably Gounod's "Ave Marie," with violin obligato by Mrs. Finkelson. It displayed excellently Miss Woodbridge's high soprano with its admirable finish and fidelity to tone.

Mrs. Finkelson, in addition to the violin obligato, gave "Hejle Katil," by Hubay, with charm and distinction, and responded to an encore. After the program of music there was an informal reception on the lawn. Mrs. Upham was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. W. S. Woodbridge, and her guest, Mrs. C. A. Stark of Minneapolis.

An elaborate event of last evening was the wedding of Miss Enid E. Freimuth and Sidney S. Berdie of this city. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Freimuth, 1306 East Second street.

The service was read under a canopy of smilax and palms in the drawing room by Rabbi Lefkovits. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Marion Sattler of Kansas City was the bridesmaid and Lasker Berdie, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white charmeuse draped in pearls and trimmed in point Venise lace. She wore a veil caught in cap effect with orange blossoms and lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride roses. Herbert Kohn was the page, and carried the bride's court train. The bridesmaid wore a gown of light blue taffeta and silk net and carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

Mrs. Freimuth, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black charmeuse fashioned with black and white chiffon. Mrs. Kohn of Chicago was gowned in taupe taffeta veiled in flowered chiffon. The ribbon bearers, Elsa Kohn, Lucille Kohn, Silvia Kohn, Helene Berdie, Blanche Zien and Helen Zien wore dainty frocks of white, as did Phyllis Sternberg and Elizabeth Sternberg, the little flower girls. Carol Freimuth was the ring bearer.

The flowers in the drawing room were white roses and Easter lilies. Smilax and palms furnished effective decorations in the halls and roses were attractively arranged about the other rooms.

A reception followed the ceremony. Those in the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. I. Freimuth were T. Berdie and William Berdie of Milwaukee, father and brother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Victor Kohn of Chicago, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Rudolph Sternberg of Lincoln, Neb., the bridegroom's sister. The other out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Abeles, Miss Ruth Abeles, Jerome Abeles, Mrs. S. D. Abeles, Mrs. Herman Sternberg and Mrs. S. C. Idzal of St. Paul. Mr. and Mrs. Berdie left for an eastern trip and will make their home in Duluth after Aug. 15.

The Freimuth-Berdie bridal dinner was given at the Hotel Holland Sunday evening. Covers were laid for 75.

The marriage of Miss Laura M. Watson, daughter of Mrs. Lester Perdue of Warren, Wis., to Edward C. Simmons of this city took place yesterday at noon at the rectory of Sacred Heart cathedral. Father Kiley read the service. The bride was attended by Miss Edith Pederson and Edmund J. Sexton was the best man. A bridal luncheon followed at the Spalding hotel.

The bride was gowned in her going away suit of blue taffeta and wore a white crepe hat. She had a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid wore a gown of pink satin and a white lace hat, with a bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Mr. and Mrs. Simmons left for a trip to the Twin Cities and Chicago and will make their home at 1726 London road, after September first.

The week-end guests at Island Lake Inn were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Grass, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Silver of Elma, Ia., Mr. and Mrs. Louis Oreck, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Spears, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Peyton and family, Mrs. A. Rheinberger, Mrs. Chatfield, Mrs. Geo.

Ebert, Miss F. Swankamp, Miss E. Duffy, Miss Daysie Lewis, I. W. Cook, O. Kjustad, Dan Cusiack, H. Schmidt, Phillip Brown, Oscar Wick, G. W. Walker, John Spears, John Rheinberger and D. H. Lewis.

Miss Anna Berggren, 713 East Third street, was hostess at a launch party last evening in compliment to Miss Minnie H. Gottschald, a bride-elect. The party went to Zenith island, where a picnic supper was served. There were 30 guests.

The choir of the Norwegian Lutheran church will give a concert this evening at the church. David A. Sodergquist, baritone, will be one of the soloists, and the choir will give a number of selections.

Mrs. George Keen, superintendent of Bennett Home, Clarkson, Miss., will arrive in the city today. She will speak at Englon M. E. church tomorrow evening, Friday afternoon before the women of Lester Park M. E. church at the home of Mrs. H. T. Hare, 5409 London road, and Sunday morning at Grace M. E. church. She will be in Duluth and vicinity for two weeks. While here she will make her headquarters at the Deaconess Home.