Kimball Would Be Surveyor.

Charles A. Kimball, civil engineer of Chisholm, yesterday filed notice of his candidacy for the office of county surveyor with County Auditor Halden. Mr. Kimball is the sixth candidate to file for the office, including the incumbent, A. E. Dyer. Today is the last day for filings to be made. All who officially declare themselves candidates will have their names placed on the general election ticket to be voted on in November.

Ask $1,175 Damages.

That William Muckart has not complied with the terms of a lease obtained from John J. Wangenstein and R. H. Doe on a tract of land in St. Louis county, is the complaint of the owners in a suit for $1,175 damages brought against him in district court yesterday. Muckart rented the property for farming and dairying purpose and agreed to clear, stump, stone and plow 15 acres by Oct. 1, says the complaint. He has not done so, and such work will cost the amount demanded by the owners, it is alleged. The property is in section 15, township 51-13.
