

Society Finds Holiday Joy at the Clubs

Duluth was deserted yesterday, instead as indoor pleasures were concerned, society preferring to golf and motor.

At Northland Country club, more than 100 passed the day in golfing, and there were several informal dinners following the day's play. The table decorations carried out a patriotic note. There was only informal entertaining at the Kitchi Gamml.

Although the Boat club season will not open until later in the month, the Spirit Lake and Oatka branches attracted a larger number of picnic parties.

Club Presidency Is Live Issue.

The presidency of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs is causing much comment throughout the state.

Mrs. C. L. Atwood of St. Cloud, present head of the state federation, has refused to consider re-election, and there is much discussion as to which district should logically have the presidency for the next two years.

It was understood that Minneapolis might offer a candidate, but none has yet been announced. Mrs. P. L. De Vos of this city, who has been a prominent state federation worker for years, also being discussed by many other districts as the logical head of the federation.

Mrs. M. S. Matthews of Marshall, who was for many years president of the Seventh district, which has never had the presidency, has been asked to be a candidate. Other women who have been mentioned for the position

Society Girls as English Nurses.

It is safe to say that the hospitals of London have never seen such pretty nurses as have graced their wards since England went to war last August. Take Charing Cross hospital, as an example. In active training as a nurse is one of the most beautiful society girls in English society—the Honorable Frances Fitzlan-Howard, daughter of Lord Howard of Glossop, who is closely related to the Duke of Norfolk, also a Howard. Like the other society girls who are taking nursing courses, the Honorable Frances does not spare herself, but insists upon doing all the work which frequently has proved too strenuous for girls more used to a life of effort.

The Honorable Frances, for several years, has been one of the most popular girls in Derbyshire where her father owns important estates. She is also well known to the residents around the family's Scotch seat, Dorlin, near Loch Shiel. With her brother, the Honorable Bernard Howard, heir to the title, now serving as a lieutenant in Lovat's Scouts, she was a familiar figure in the glens and along the swift running streams of Inverness-shire.

North Twenty-sixth avenue West, chaperoned a week-end fishing party to Schaffer's inn, Lester river, in honor of their guest, Miss Ida Clark of Chicago. The members of the party were Miss Anna Stenglen, Miss Jeannette Roy, Carl Zuck and Robert Johnson.

Miss Mary Garvey, 311 Second avenue West, passed the week end at Soton Springs.
