

WAR CAUSES DEATH OF MRS. SAX IN RUSSIA

Mother of Solomon Sax of Eveleth Dies at Old Home Near the Russian Border.

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

EVELETH, Jan. 2.—Solomon Sax, of this city, has received word of the death of his mother at the old family home in Tauroggan, Russia. The town is only one mile from the Prussian boundary and in the zone in which the great armies of Germany and Austria and Russia are waging sanguinary battles.

Deceased was 73 years old. Her death is supposed to have been caused by nervous excitement occasioned by the war. She is survived by a widower and one daughter living in Tauroggan and by four sons and one daughter living in this country. The latter are Solomon Sax and Mrs. F. Kabinowitz of Eveleth, Max Sax of Chisholm, Lazarus Sax of Chicago and Lazarus Rubenstein of Gilbert.
