

HELD FOR GRAND JURY ON CHARGE OF LARCENY

Joseph Handlovsky, charged with taking $32.50 of the funds of the Bell-net Installment company, 302 East Superior street, waived examination in municipal court yesterday and was held for the grand jury. Handlovsky is charged with second degree larceny. He was arrested by the police of Superior Wednesday and brought to Duluth on a warrant issued last November.