

Duluth Wins Laurels by Singer

MINNEAPOLIS had an opportunity to hear some of the real stars of the opera firmament last night, when Miss Sjoselius of Duluth, who is the guest of Mrs. Horace Lopes of Minneapolis, and Madam Eleonora de Cisneros and Graham Marr, both of the Chicago Grand Opera company, who have been engaged in grand opera both in Chicago and New York and Ernest Knoch, one of the greatest conductors of the day, united to make a great success of a grand opera night yesterday at the Robert theater in Minneapolis. Dr. Edmond Kraus had the direction of the performance.

The third act of "Lohengrin" was the first offering. In this Dr. Kraus sang the title role and Miss Sjoselius was heard as Elsa. The second and fourth acts of "Carmen" was presented with Madam de Cisneros in the title role and Dr. Kraus as Don Jose. Graham Marr sang Escamillo, Emma Marcelli sang Frasquita and Clara Lucker, Mercedes. The second act of "Samson and Delilah" was put on with Dr. Kraus as Samson and Madam de Cisneros as Delilah.

Minneapolis society patronized the performance and prominent hostesses were listed among the patronesses. These were Mrs. J. B. Gillilan, Mrs. Louis K. Hull, Mrs. William H. Lee, Mrs. E. S. Thurston, Mrs. W. R. Vance, Mrs. Archibald Sanders, Mrs. Franklin M. Crosby, Mrs. John Crosby, Mrs. Thomas H. Shevlin, Mrs. Sumner T.
