WILL BE COMPILED

TAG DAY RECEIPTS

Local Organization Will Send Funds at Once to Relieve War Sufferers.

Ninety-tive sealed boxes, containing nickels, dimes, quarters and larger coins, donated by Superior citizens for Jewish war sufferers during-the "tag" campaign Saturday will be opened this morning. All the boxes were placed in the vault of the Bank of Commerce. It was not to be suffered to the same of Commerce lived the receipts would approximate $200. Superior citizens responded generously to the appeals of the tag-generously to the appeals of the taggers.

The money will be sent immediately to the Jewish central relief committee in New York and in turn will helforwarded to Europe for distribu-ately to the Jewish central relief committee in New York and in turn will be forwarded to Europe for distribution among the Hebrew sufferers in the various theaters of war. Those who took part in the tag day are: Fearl Waller, Rose Lurye, Sarah Cohen, Rebecca Cohen, Bessie Fon-

Those who took part in the tag day are: Fearl Waller, Rose Lurye, Sarah Cohen, Rebecca Cohen, Bessie Fonting Cohen, Rebecca Cohen, Bessie Fonting Charles Cohen, Charles Cohen, Charles Carles Carles

Fledman, Mirkam Solomon, Ruth Arnovitch, Sarah Handlasky, Jinnie Holzberg, Jennie Ovetsky, Sarah Haronimus, Esther Schneider, Jessle Weinsteln, Molly Handlasky, Sarah Harris, Annie Gittleman, Sarah Greenbland and Gittleman, Sarah Greenbland and Gittleman, Sarah Greenbland and Gittleman, Januel Brader, Harris, Annie Goldeten, Handle Buder, Rose Altman, Mrs. M. Sherr, Mrs. R. Edelstein and Mrs. R. Cohen.