

VIRGINIA HIGH TO HAVE HOLIDAY

Four Literary Societies Will Give Programs for Entertainment of School Wednesday Afternoon.

VACATION WILL START THANKSGIVING DAY

President's Proclamation to Be Read and History of Day Reviewed—Musical Numbers.

VIRGINIA, Nov. 20.—Wednesday afternoon will be a holiday for the classes at the Technical high school and the members of the literary societies have arranged elaborate Thanksgiving programs for the entertainment of the school. These programs are as follows:

Senior—Song, "America," by society; President's Thanksgiving proclamation, Edward Byrnes; current events, Edward Wicklem; song, to be selected, Gladys Shields, Claire Lippman, Rose Levinson, Myra Lindsay, Lillian Pfeiffer, Marion Pfeiffer; "History of Thanksgiving," Leona Smith; reading, Francis Lippman; newspaper, Richard Trotter; critic's report.

Junior—Current events, Sarah Wall; Thanksgiving proclamation, Mildred Loecher; "Our Government's New Advisory Board," Athlyn Faucett; selection, junior girl's glee club "The Dye Stuff Famine," Eldon Graham; recitation, "Norsk Nightingale," Arne Matala; "American Motion Pictures in Oriental Lands," Celia Johnson; song by junior class; critic's report, Nathaniel J. Quickstad.

Sophomore—Thanksgiving story, Olga Jaarni; vocal duet, Myrtle Johnson, Ruth McCormick; newspaper sporting section, John Gowan, society news, Fern Shaver; advertising, Reynolds Milroy; humor, Angela Klink; Thanksgiving declamation, Gilbert Larson; 10 minute talk on current events, Hannah Bloomquist; critic's report, H. J. Wieland.

Freshmen—Song, girls' chorus; essay, "Origin of Thanksgiving," Leonard Olson; original Thanksgiving story, Alvera Logue; song, boys' glee club; play, "Three of a Kind," Enid Wien, Frances Steurwald, Mildred Pribnow, Grace Young, Mona Smith, Melvin Irwin. The section freshmen will give the following program: Current events, Helmer Kestila; dialogue, George Helston, Boston Sherwood; Thanksgiving story, Effie Hawkinson; song, girls' sextette, Carolyn Elliott, Esther Kennedy, Ethel Thayer, Marion Smith, Irene Henry, Gertrude Jenkins; newspaper, Wheelock Sherwood; paper, "A Trip Underground," Oliver Sarff; reading, Carolyn Elliott; critic's report.