These three sets of receipts, files and records will tally and are subject, under incorporation, to audit by the state auditor.

H. F. Salyards gave the largest individual donation for this year's charity ball, paying the expenses of the affair, including supper, hotel, music, stamps, decoration, which totaled $362.86.

The women gratefully acknowledge the kindly assistance of the News Tribune, Herald, the Glass Block store, George A. Gray company, I. Frelmuth, Silberstein & Bondy company, Albenberg store and Columbia Clothing company in placing the call for financial help before the public for the kiddies.

In addition to the acknowledgement already made, the women especially wish to thank Ernest Elin, Walter Evans, Glass Block store, G. A. Gray company and the many women who assisted with the decorations.

"The ball was a success, but the sum realized alone would not pay two months' bills for our family, which today numbers 111," said Mrs. Jones. A number of tickets are yet to be reported.
