

BARRON, WIS.

BARRON, Wis.—The junior class gave an informal Thanksgiving mask party for the seniors and faculty at the high school Friday evening.

The Misses Stolpe, Wilhelm and Lierman went to Minneapolis Thursday morning. They will return Sunday evening.

Louise Nygaard passed Thursday and Friday with relatives in Minneapolis.

Evo Horstmann went to Minneapolis Tuesday morning and returned home Wednesday.

Misses Freeda Hellstrom and Anna Henke spent Friday in Minneapolis.

W. N. Fuller was over from Cumberland Tuesday to attend court.

Miss Jo Johnson passed Thursday at her home in Rice Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Blum of Rice Lake motored over Tuesday evening.

Ben Kaner passed Sunday at his home in Duluth.

Clair House moved his household goods to Barron this week.

Mrs. Slattery and Mrs. Mason, who were called here by the illness and death of their mother, Mrs. Carroll, returned to their homes Tuesday.

Mrs. Martin Thompson, who has been visiting here for about a week, returned to her home at Nye Wednesday. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Bertina Osterhus.

Ruth Coe came home from Minneapolis Wednesday evening to pass the Thanksgiving holidays.

Eva Burnham and Helga Nelson came home from Eau Claire Wednesday to pass Thanksgiving.

T. J. Thompson was a business visitor in the Twin Cities Tuesday.

Eula Scott of Prairie Farm visited friends here the first of the week.

Roy Aune passed Thursday at his home near Rice Lake.

Emerson Fuller went to Minneapolis Monday.

Mrs. George Plahn of St. Paul is visiting at the William Rhodes home.

D. O. Kuhnley and Ben Kuhnley, who have been visiting relatives here for about a week returned to their home at Webster, Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Sloggett is seriously ill at the Dr. Werner hospital.

Mrs. Nilles visited with her parents at Almena a couple of days last week.

D. F. Clark was down from Ladysmith last week to attend the Holstein sale at the City View farm.