

IN SOCIETY

12 o'clock. After supper general dancing will be enjoyed. A six piece orchestra will play the dance program. The committee in charge has been named as follows: Dr. W. J. Hewitt, Dr. M. W. Murray, Raymond Collins, Alexander McDonald and Frank Rorke. The attendance will be limited to 30 couples and those who are not members and desire to attend should present their applications at once to Alexander McDonald.

According to word received from Miss Sophia Burke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Burke, 702 North Fifth street, who teaches school at Heppner, Oregon, she will spend the holidays at Pasadena, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Booth and sons, Harry and Richard, of 621 Chestnut street will leave this evening for Duluth, Minn., where they will spend the holidays as the guests of Mrs. Booth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kielley.

Mrs. J. D. Bucknell of Waverly, Ia., who has spent the past week as the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rice, 310 North Eighth street, left yesterday noon for Fargo, where she will spend the holidays as the guest of her son, H. E. Bucknell, in Fargo before going to her home in Iowa.

Miss Selma Nelson, who teaches at Edmore, spent a few hours in the city yesterday enroute to points in northern Minnesota, where she will spend the holiday season with relatives.

SOCIETY NOTES

Among the social gatherings of the holiday season will be the Comus club cotillion which will be given Wednesday evening, December 29, at the Hotel Dacotah and will be one of the most enjoyable parties of the season.

The cotillion will commence at 8:30 o'clock and will continue until

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. McElroy, 204 Washington street, will leave Saturday morning for Red Lake Falls, where they will spend the holiday with Mrs. McElroy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Laurent. Mr. McElroy will return to the city Monday morning but Mrs. McElroy will spend the week visiting her parents. Mr. McElroy will join his wife Friday evening and they will go to Minneapolis, where a two weeks' visit will be enjoyed with Mr. McElroy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McElroy.

Mrs. O. L. Kermott and Miss Nellie McMullen will entertain this evening at the home of Miss McMullen, 411 Dakota avenue, at a "chafing dish" supper, complimentary of Miss Jessie Bell Dow, a bride of Christmas day.

The home will be adorned with the season's decorations and candles will be used to light the room during the repast. Visiting and music will be the pleasures of the evening, and the guests will include the intimate friends of the bride-to-be.

Judge and Mrs. C. M. Cooley of the Belmont apartments have left for Minneapolis, where they will spend the holidays as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gordon, former residents of Grand Forks.

Gudmund Thorgrimson will arrive this evening from Luther college at Decorah, Iowa, and will spend the holidays as the guest of his parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Thorgrimson, 223 Fourth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Bronson and daughter Clementine, 404 South Fifth street, left last evening over the Great Northern for Minneapolis, where they will spend the holidays as the guests of relatives.

Lloyd Fox is the name chosen for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leake of Emerado. Mr. and Mrs. Leake will spend the holidays as the guests of Mrs. Leake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox, 421 South Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox of Norman, N. D., have arrived in the city, and will also be holiday guests of Mr. Fox's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cross of 1123 North Fourth street, will be dinner guests Christmas day of Mrs. Cross's mother, Mrs. William Spriggs of the Spriggs block.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Nelson and daughter Mina of Mankinok returned to their home last evening, after spending a few days in the city visiting friends.

Harry Gotzian of Emerado has arrived in the city and will be the guest of his mother, Mrs. Henry Gotzian, of the Gotzian block for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. O'Reilly, 310 North Seventh street, have as their guest until after the holidays their daughter, Mrs. Homer James Luce (Pauline O'Reilly) of Milwaukee, Wis. Mr. Luce will arrive Christmas eve to spend the holiday at the O'Reilly home and to accompany Mrs. Luce to their home.

Miss Margaret Vaa will leave Friday evening for McIntosh, Minn., where she will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vaa, for a week.

Miss Guri Sand will go to her home at Emerado Friday to spend the week and as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Sand.

Miss Mary Fishman of 814 International avenue will leave this noon for Minneapolis to spend the holidays as the guest of friends.

Mrs. E. Scott left Tuesday evening over the Great Northern for her home at Superior, Wis., after spending the past six weeks in the city as the guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gunlogson, 713 North Third street. Mrs. Scott came here from Portage La Prairie, Man., where she was the guest of her mother, Mrs. James Moffatt, for two weeks.

Miss Emily Nash entertained at a supper party at her home, 503 South Fifth street, last evening in honor of Miss Caroline Shideler, a bride of next week. The affair was in the nature of a miscellaneous shower and the honor guest received many pretty and useful gifts for her new home.

The Christmas colors of red and green, effected by the use of holly and carnations, were used in the room decorations. Red carnations were used for the center of the table and covers were laid for the intimate friends of the bride-to-be. The guests remained for the evening, which was spent in games and music.

Mrs. J. Nelson Kelly, 521 South Fifth street, has left for Woodstock, Ill., where she will spend the holidays as the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. J. Murphy.

O. E. Forde, 1615 International avenue, will go to Hillsboro to spend the holiday season as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Forde. Mrs. Forde will leave this morning for Duluth, Minn., where she will spend the holidays as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Ed. Mattoon. Mrs. Forde will go to Minneapolis to spend New Year's day with her sister, Mrs. E. J. Kennedy. Mr. Forde will meet his wife in Minneapolis and will accompany her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cullem, 206 Washington street, will go to Sioux City, Ia., to spend the holiday season as the guests of relatives.

Mrs. Ray Fisher (Blanche Brolin) will arrive after the New Year from her home, Libertyville, Ia., and will visit for several weeks the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brolin, 1117 Cheyenne avenue.

Mrs. Janet Douglas and Miss Lillian Douglas of Gilby will arrive today and will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Relton, 409 North Third street. They will be out of town guests at the wedding of Miss Clara Bel Peirce and Clifford Relton tomorrow morning.

A holiday dancing party will be given by the Knights of Columbus at their club rooms Monday evening, December 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McKenzie (Gladys Hill) of Grafton will arrive this evening and will be week end guests of Mrs. McKenzie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hill, 210 North Seventh street.

Mrs. George L. Hansmann of Black River Falls, Wis., has arrived in the city and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Johnson, 621 Sixth avenue, until after the holidays.

Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, at the First Methodist church, will be held the white Christmas tree program. The cantata, "Santa Claus' Cure," will be rendered by the children of the Sunday school. Only the smaller children of the church will receive a treat from the Christmas tree, while the older classes will bring gifts for the different families. The young ladies of Mrs. Thompson's Sunday school class, of which class Mrs. Pearl Blough is president, will act the part of Santa Claus in certain homes, and will bring them a real Christmas by furnishing a Christmas tree, and decorating it. Gifts for the children of the family will be placed on the tree, and a Christmas dinner will be prepared by the young ladies.

This evening a Christmas tree party will be given at the University Settlement house. A program of Christmas musical numbers and recitations will be given. The small children will receive a treat from the tree.

Mrs. William Pender and her sister, Mrs. L. French, and son Donald, both of the Gotzian block, will leave tomorrow noon over the Northern Pacific for Fargo, where they will be the guests over night of their sister, Mrs. J. McCarthy. Christmas morning they will go to Barnesville, Minn., where they will be the guests of relatives until after the new year.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt King and daughter

Lucille and Myrtle will leave Friday noon over the Great Northern for Melrose, Minn., where they will be the guests of Mrs. King's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Feaster, for two weeks. At St. Cloud, Minn., Mrs. King's brother-in-law, J. E. Robertson, and family, will be visited.

At the meeting last evening of the Royal neighbors, they decided to give a masquerade dance, Jan. 12, at Odd Fellows' hall. An installation of officers will be held in connection with the Woodmen the first Thursday in January. All Royal Neighbors and Woodmen and their friends are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Horton and daughter Dorothy, of 1616 Budget avenue, will spend the holiday at Crookston, as the guests of Mr. Horton's father.

Mrs. Clarence Arnold and two little daughters of Jennie avenue, left last evening over the Great Northern for Seattle, Wash., where they will spend the holidays as the guests of Mrs. Arnold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Smith, former residents of this city. Enroute back visits will be made at Tacoma with Mr. and Mrs. James Arnold (Cecil McGuire), formerly of this city, and at Spokane they will visit with Mr. Arnold's relatives. Mrs. Arnold expects to return to the city in about three weeks.

Miss Lillian Anderson of Thor, N. D., has arrived in the city, and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Anderson, Walnut street. After the holiday season Miss Anderson will go to Valley City, where she will attend the normal school.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. L. Shideler and her daughter, Miss Caroline Shideler, were at home to their friends from 3 until 6, at their home, 310 Cottonwood street.

The home was adorned with Christmas decorations, and the assisting ladies were Mrs. T. K. Ahlroth, Mrs. J. F. Williams, Mrs. C. P. McErlane of Whitman, N. D., and Misses Florence Collins, Lida Abrahamson, Evelyn Hilleboe, Margaret Hyslop and Miss Edith Vitch.

Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hatcher, 617 South Fifth street, will entertain at a family dinner, and covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bloomquist and daughter Janet. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Rheinhardt and sons Robert and William, Mrs. Helena Rheinhardt and sons Frank and Wallace, Miss Eleanor Peterson of St. Peter, Minn., and Miss Ida Plummer. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Plummer of Epworth, N. D., will not be able to spend the holidays here, but will arrive the middle of January for a short visit.

Mrs. J. E. Burgett of Orr and her sister, Miss Eva Peterson, who teaches school at Larimore, returned to Mrs. Burgett's home last evening, after a short visit in the city. Miss Peterson will be her sister's guest during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton returned to their home at Fisher, Minn., after spending yesterday in the city as the guests of friends.

Miss Emma, who becomes the bride of Henry O. Nashem next week, will be the guest of honor Tuesday afternoon when her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. A. Braseth, 315 Chestnut street, entertained in her honor.

Decorations in the season's colors were used in the home adornments and in the appointments of the three-course luncheon. Social chat and needlework were the pleasures of the afternoon. The bride-to-be was the recipient of many gifts for use in her new home.

The repast was served at three small tables, and red candles in crystal holders were used for the centerpiece. Streamers of red and green, draped from the chandelier, were used to decorate the bride's table. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. O. Walworth, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. O. A. Braseth.

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Fulton of Holman, Minn., arrived, and will be the guests of Mrs. Fulton's parents, Mrs. D. M. Holmes, 192 Reeves avenue, and with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hester, 30 Cottonwood street. Christmas day Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will entertain at a family dinner. Their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes of Des Moines, Ia., are the only members of the family that will not be present.

Among the young people who have arrived home from St. Paul, where they are students at St. Catherine's and St. Thomas colleges, are the Misses Margaret and Anastasia White, Miss Mary Trepanier and Miss Monica Murphy of Reynolds, and Messrs. Raymond Corrigan, Roy Spriggs and William Trepanier.

Among those who will entertain at a family dinner Christmas day are Mr. and Mrs. V. Emard, 214 Cottonwood street, who will entertain their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emard, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hanson. William Emard of Minneapolis will not come home for the holidays this year.

Mrs. B. J. Hart, 301 Almont avenue, had as over night guests Miss Myrtle White, who teaches school at Waihalla, and Miss Jessie Blue, who teaches school at Manvel, who left yesterday morning for their homes at Bemidji, where they will spend the holidays with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. DeLong, 511 North Fourth street, will entertain Christmas day at a family dinner. The guests will include the members of the DeLong family, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Olson and family, and Mr. DeLong's brother, D. H. DeLong, of Wal-scheme will be used in the luncheon appointments. Music and games will be the evening's diversions.

Miss Paletz is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Israel Paletz, 823 Fourth avenue, and has made her home in this city for the past 11 years. Mr. Papermaster has always resided in this city, and is the proprietor of the Grand Forks "Pantorium."

Miss Ruth Jacob, 135 Reeves avenue, will have as her guest during the holidays, Miss Mildred Allen of Minneapolis, who will arrive Sunday. Miss Allen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Allen, former resident of Grand Forks.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. M. W. Day, entertained at her home, 310 North Fourth street, in honor of Miss Jessie Bell Dow, a bride of Christmas morning.

Christmas decorations were used in the home and table decorations, and music were the pleasures of the guests. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. James Black and Mrs. Robert Spriggs. Covers were laid for 14 guests.

According to word received by A. D. Baughman, Mrs. Baughman and children, Ruth and Richard, 1003 Lewis Boulevard, will arrive in the city in a few days from the Pacific coast, where they have spent the past several months. Mrs. Baughman and Richard left last October for Seattle, where Mrs. Baughman was one of the delegates to the national W. C. T. U. convention. The fair at San Francisco co was visited after the convention, and relatives and friends were visited in several of the coast cities. Miss Ruth Baughman has been at the coast since the close of school last spring, and has been the guest of relatives and friends since that time.

O. E. Rustad, who travels out of Bismarck, will reach the city Friday morning and will spend the holiday with his family at 24 North Seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. Mearle Delchert of Cavalier, whose wedding took place December, whose wedding took place Delchert being formerly Miss Blanch Estelle Prugh of that city, are visiting in the city for a few days as the guests of Mr. Delchert's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Delchert, of the Belmont apartments.