

SAMUEL E. GOMBERG

WINS A PROMOTION

Samuel E. Gomberg, the son of Y. and Mrs. William Gomberg, 1512 Grosvenor road, who is traveling in the south for an eastern firm, has just been given the southeastern territory, extending from the Gulf of Mexico to New York, and together with his wife is enjoying a several weeks' stay in Florida and Louisiana. He is passing the holidays in New Orleans and Jacksonville, Fla., and later will go to Tampa, Palm Beach, Miami, Key West and from there to Havana, Cuba. He will sail from the last port for New York and will return to Duluth in February to visit at his home before proceeding for the company's headquarters in Indiana.

Mr. Gomberg is 21 years of age and his progress in this work will be of interest to many Duluthians who have known him since he attended Duluth schools.
