

COHASSET, MINN.

COHASSET, Minn. — Mrs. Ted Golf will entertain the Christian Ladies' Aid Thursday afternoon.

George Ranes and Bert Woodbridge were callers in Duluth last week.

Sam Combs and Madson Bullock left for camp last week.

The Alta society met with Mrs. E. C. Curtis Thursday afternoon and Mrs. Curtis was elected president and Mrs. Ed Goulet secretary.

Carel Parker left last week for the Thorofare schoolhouse to make repairs on the building.

F. W. Simons passed Thanksgiving with his family in Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Clark and baby of the river country, passed Thanksgiving in Deer River.

Mrs. Cliff Parker of Grand Rapids was a visitor in Cohasset last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson and children have been the guests of Mrs. Carrie Voss.

The Yeoman lodge will hold its next meeting Dec. 11.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ersken, Dr. M. M. Hursh and wife and Mrs. H. Ranfrantz attended the New England supper here.

The dance given at the village hall last week was well attended.

Mrs. Earel Stultz was a caller in Grand Rapids Saturday.

Mrs. Maurice Soloski is visiting her sister in Duluth.

Mrs. C. Taroe returned Friday from a visit with friends and relatives at Aitkin, Minn.