

EVELETH EAGLES PLAN TO BUILD CLUBHOUSE

EVELETH, Dec. 3.—J. J. Brince was elected worthy president of Eveleth lodge No. 118' Fraternal Order of Eagles at the annual meeting and R. B. Mead was named worthy vice president.

Other officers elected were Judge W. E. Moylan, chaplain; C. U. Jankins, secretary; Frank Rabinowitz, treasurer; Andy Anderson, inside guard; Andrew Spolarich, outside guard, and Jacob Kentta, trustee for three years.

There will be a big celebration at the installation of the new officers, which will take place at the meeting on the first Wednesday of January. The Eagles expect to raise enough funds from the carnival now in progress to build a clubhouse of their own next year.
