

RETAIL MERCHANTS OF VIRGINIA TO GIVE BANQUET WEDNESDAY

VIRGINIA, Minn., Feb. 14.—Speakers of state-wide prominence will address members of the Virginia Retail Merchant's association when the first annual banquet of that organization is held at the Fay hotel next Wednesday night. Covers will be laid for 100. It will be the association's first social affair.

Principal speakers will be Senator George H. Peterson, of the Duluth merchants' organization and Frank N. Gravel, both of Duluth. Samuel Jereissati, this city, will be toastmaster.

The committee in charge is composed of Samuel Jereissati, William Berger, Samuel Milavetz, Rheuben Latz, George Nill, John Ketola, C. T. Taylor, M. K. Baer, and H. E. Reinertson.
